

Evening News Review.

13TH YEAR. NO. 211.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1898.

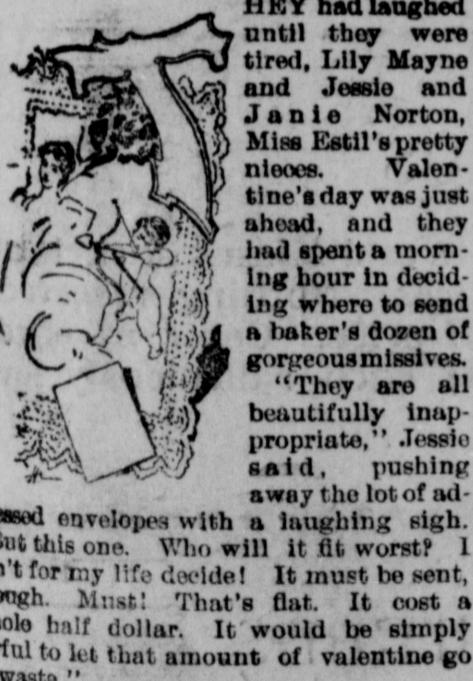

TWO CENTS

A RANDOM DART.

BY MARTHA McCULLOCH WILLIAMS.

(Copyright by the Author.)

"She is not really so old either," Lily said; "only 50. It is that troublesome bullet in his chest which makes his hair so gray, I dare say!"

"You are a destroyer of romance, Lily. You deserve to be severely suppressed," Jessie interrupted. "You ought to have left us the belief that it was unrequited love which had bleached his poll."

"Stop your nonsense and help me with these cards," Lily said. "Unless they are ready at once we will never get them sent in time. Valentines are good fun, but a valentine party is ever so much better."

"Wisdom, thy name is Lily," Jessie retorted, rolling up her eyes. Then the three fell silently and furiously to work upon the envelopes piled at one side of the table, addressing them and slipping inside cards which bade all Miss Estil's friends come and be merry at her house upon Feb. 14.

"Perhaps it was automatic action; perhaps, also, fate guided her fingers. Janie never knew. The fact remains that one of the fairly engraved cards went to keep the pink Cupid company upon his journey to Major Sterling. In due season the post delivered both at the major's door. The major himself took them in and blushed through all his tan and grizzle at sight of the big envelope, which had a spray of roses and a pair of turtle doves embossed upon the flap.

"I wonder what girl is trying to guy me," he said as he sat down in his own snugger, tossing it to the other side of the table. In reality he was full of eager curiosity to see the inside of it, but a sense of what was seemly for a man of his gray hair made him leave it ostentatiously alone until he had read through all the morning's grist of letters. He even answered one or two of the most imperative and read another page of the morning paper before he allowed himself to touch his valentine.

"Really that is not so bad—not half so bad as it might have been," he said, holding the pink Cupid at arm's length. Through living so much alone he had got into a way of talking to himself. He had few visitors. His own man, Mulligan, was a model of discreet silence, and Marina, cook and housemaid, never ventured to address more than three consecutive words to "the master." Semioccasionally he spent an evening at the club. Once a year he made a round of ceremonious calls upon old friends—friends that had been his mother's rather than his own. Otherwise he kept entirely to himself.

That made talk, of course. His neighbors and their gossips could not understand why a retired officer, more than reasonably well to do outside of his half pay, should elect to live thus, more than half a hermit. What did it matter that he was a bachelor, without near ties of blood?

There was Louise Estil, almost his age and single, devoting herself to many things, and especially keeping in touch with social life. The girls, Lily and Jessie, and Janie, were not really her nieces, only the children of her step brothers and sisters. Yet she kept them about her half the time and gave them all sorts of pleasure.

"I don't believe he ever knew. He was born old. I am sure of it," Lily answered.

Janie shook her head.

"No, he wasn't," she said. "I heard was the gayest young fellow until he went west to fight Indians. Something dreadful must have happened there, for ever since he came back invalided he has been just as we see him now."

tres. Even when they were absent she was never at a loss. All the young people, especially all the young men, adopted her as aunt and haunted her cozy house.

Major Sterling knew all this. Sometimes he smiled over it. Often he sighed. The smile was for the hints of doubled down pages in his past; the sigh for the intolerable loneliness more and more enveloping his present. He had a man's memories of women whom he had fancied, some hotly for the minute, some delicately afar off and wavering. He had never seriously made love to any of them, mainly that he had been too busy with doing a man's part out on the frontier. He had always meant to marry; he might even have done it long ago, only that chance comes to your age," Tom said, a little stiffly. "But if you cared about one and saw her tagged off with another fellow—well, I think you would see the difference."

"We are ready! Bring on your sacrifices!" Janie called from outside the door. Tom had passed about small numbered slips. Now he called aloud, "Advance, No. 1, and meet your doom."

No. 1 was Timmy Logan, the minister's son, slight, mild, blue eyed and sentimental. A silent laugh went about when at the end of a minute he was seen to pass on into the long parlors with Mrs. Beckly, 40, fat and jolly, upon his arm. "Lord! The misfits of this night!" Tom groaned as No. 2 went in. "Don't lose your nerve or your number, major. Maybe you'll get the youngest pretty girl of all."

"I'll be satisfied with any," Major Sterling answered. His next neighbor said in a stage whisper, "Tom would be jolly as a grig if he could just arrange to swap with whoever gets his cousin Jessie." Again Major Sterling smiled. It was so like the Tom of old, this wanting all things to give way for the gratification of his momentary whim.

"I don't choose at all. I am No. 0," Tom said, trying to look dignified. "We are both naughts, Aunt Louise and I. That shows the naughts are sometimes pretty significant figures."

The choosing went on rapidly. Fate was madly, merrily perverse. Nearly every couple was humorously mismatched. Major Sterling found himself paired with Janie Norton, and Tom's eyes flashed hate as he saw Jessie, his Jessie, pass out, foredoomed to the attentions of Royce Ford, his most dangerous rival. Lily fell to the lot of Mr. Ware, a widower, newly set out, and still in the first excess of widower folly.

"Now, do you like playing providence? I hear you are responsible for all this," Major Sterling said in Janie's ear as they watched the throng. She gave her shoulders the least possible shrug as she replied:

"I am not playing providence. I only wish I might."

"What would you do first?" he asked.

"Give all my friends just enough misery to accent their happiness and my enemies happiness enough to make their misery more miserable," she answered promptly.

"What an unamiable young person you

"I KNOW WHAT WE WILL DO."

had such a knack of whisking him away from the enchanter of the minute and setting him where there was fighting to be done.

"H-m-m! This is shockingly inappropriate," he said at last, nodding to the Cupid. "The arrow is all very well—I have seen bigger ones, though I doubt if they were so dangerous. But why! Oh, why are you not shooting it at a man? You cannot be meant to personify me! I am the last fellow in the world for such a thing as that. I wonder who sent you. The lady there, up in the clouds, is not the least bit like anybody I know." With that he took up the envelope and carefully scrutinized the address. It was written in a big hand, fashionably angular, and noncommittal. As he fingered it he felt something inside. He turned it upside down, shook it and sent the card spinning to the other edge of the table.

"I see!" he said, his eyes twinkling. "Those wicked, wicked young persons Miss Estil harbors have plotted against us, their elders and betters. They think I may be fooled into believing she had a hand in it. As if I did not know Louise Estil better than anybody in the world."

Then in mind he ran over their long acquaintance. He had been dangerously near loving her back in the old days when she was his mother's pet, and Tom, her youngest stepbrother, his own especial chum. He remembered quite clearly how it had made his heart beat to see her come tripping up the walk, and how gloomy he had been for a whole week when Tom let him know, quite incidentally and as a matter of course, that Louise was going to marry young Cary, the railroad president's son. Then he had pulled himself together and gone west, putting her so completely out of his mind that he had felt only a mild surprise at meeting Cary ten years after with a wife upon his arm as unlike Louise as possible. And it had not given him the least thrill to come back and find her free. He had listened with only languid interest when a club veteran told him how Louise had sent away her rich lover for no other reason than that she did not choose to marry him.

"You do not expect me—not the least, young ladies," he said after a little, smiling at the faces his fancy conjured up. "But I shall go to your party. More, I shall claim my rights as a valentine. As I remember, if you found out what girl had sent one you were entitled to kiss her in the face of daylight. I wonder how you will like that. I wonder still more if I shall have courage to carry through so daring an enterprise."

Man proposes. St. Valentine sometimes disposes. Major Sterling found that out beyond peradventure. The Estil house stood in the town's outskirts, sitting quite apart in the middle of wide grounds. It was gray and solid and roomy, with doors hospitably wide. He found it lighted up from top to bottom and within it as merry a company as man might care to see. It gave him an odd turn to be met by young Tom Norton, son and image of his old chum, and hustled off into the big sitting room, where 20 other men were already congregated.

"You see," Tom explained as they went along, "Janie has got this in hand. She is always up to some mischief. I tried to make her hear reason; but, you know, girls never will pay attention to what their brothers say."

"Janie looks like a sensible girl. I am not afraid to trust her," the major returned. Tom gave a little sniff, saying: "Wait until I tell you about it. She is wild for some new valentine nonsense. In fact, all of them are. They heard about looking out of the window. As they can't manage that they have hit on something worse. When everybody has come, I am to send you men, one at a time, into the library. They have rigged a sort of window there at the back, and the girl who will be standing behind it will, of course, see you and be your valentine for the rest of the night. They wanted to make it out the rest of the year, but I put my foot on that. The girls draw lots as to who shall first choose. It really is not a matter of choice, though; it's rather all blind luck."

"Good luck for some of us, I hope," the major said, laughing. "Do you know, Tom, it strikes me as a great scheme."

"Oh, I suppose not," he said thoughtfully, even a little wistfully. "If only I were like your Aunt Louise!"

"Why! Has Tom told you about that? Auntie will never forgive him. She did not mean to tell anybody, not even the minister, until just before—" Janie began, her eyes full of wonder. Major Sterling stopped her. He was equally bewildered, partly by what she had said, more by the implication of it.

"I have been told nothing. I don't know what you mean! Not the least in the world," he said, speaking very low.

"But do tell me! Please! So much may depend on it. If I were like Aunt Louise—what?"

"Why, you might get married and live happy ever after," Janie said, looking down. "You won't tell it. She is going to marry next month. No, it is not Mr.

Cary. He courted her as soon as his wife died, but she would not look at him. None of us has seen our new uncle. She met him at the seashore. He is a genius, delicate, five years younger than she, and so rich he needs some one to take care of him very badly. At first she was afraid people would say she wanted his money. But love found a way around pride. Real love always does overcome everything."

"I wonder if it can overcome gray hair and 30 years," the major said, with a shake in his voice. Janie shot a glance at him. He was deadly pale. They had moved away from the crowd and stood al-

"YOU KNOW IT BROUGHT ME HERE." most alone upon the broad, lighted porch. She put both hands over his arm and leaned a little to him as she answered:

"I think, yes! I am sure it could, if you gave it a decent chance."

Six months after they were married. Cupid's random dart proved more effectual than many which were carefully aimed.

A Valentine.

Should we stray, lost within a lonesome land Where flowers refuse to bloom and deathful sand O'er sweeps the way by which we may return, Love will still lead, though, lost, we wait and yearn.

And if by chance of grief and sorrowing Our disjoined hands no longer clasp and cling, Some whispered word of love will find its place, Exalting us to newer peace and grace.

Let us twain keep our faith till death do part Us, thou and I! The world's in rhyme, sweet heart; Thy heart and mine are Valentine.

His Valentine.

With the valentine before him, On his knee, What precious thought came o'er him: "Sweet Marie— Did she send it? Does she love me?" How he sighed!

"She's an angel far above me, But I wish her for my bride."

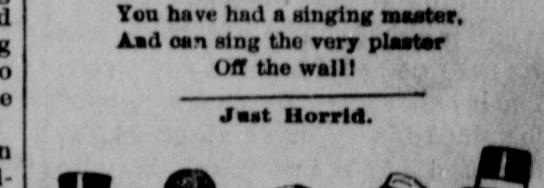

Then he kissed the scented letter On his knee.

"None could ever love her better— Sweet Marie! Did she send it? Has she meant it? Wish I knew!" Ah, the pity! Susie sent it, And he did not care for Sue.

EARLIE HOOKER HATON.

Valentine to a Musical Maid. In a truly awful manner You can pound the poor "plannies," You can bawl, You have had a singing master, And can sing the very plaster Off the wall!

Just Horrid.

Five maskers, grand in dash and swell, Ogled a fair one to her dread. St. Valentine had marked them well, And straight to each this token sped:

"In this composite valentine Thy phiz and more beside pray see. I'll let thee choose the 'beaut' for thine. All maskers look alike to me."

DENE OWENS.

Like Her Face.

Miss Cutting Very—Yes, May, dear, the valentine Charley sent you was so like you—so like your face.

Miss May D'Upp—Like my face?

"Yes, dear—hand painted, you know.

The hospitals of the metropolitan asylums board in London have 8,800 beds set apart for scarlet fever and only 700 for diphtheria.

Evening News Review.

13TH YEAR. NO. 211.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1898.

TWO CENTS

A RANDOM DART.

BY MARTHA McCULLOCH WILLIAMS.

(Copyright by the Author.)

HEY had laughed until they were tired, Lily Mayne and Jessie and Janie Norton, Miss Estil's pretty nieces. Valentine's day was just ahead, and they had spent a morning hour in deciding where to send a baker's dozen of gorgeous missives.

"They are all beautifully inappropriate," Jessie said, pushing away the lot of addressed envelopes with a laughing sigh. "But this one. Who will fit worst? I can't for my life decide! It must be sent, though. Must! That's flat. It cost a whole half dollar. It would be simply awful to let that amount of valentine go to waste."

"I don't see why we ever bought it," Janie said, eying it critically. Lily laughed again. "Oh, we had to. It appealed so strongly to your artistic sense," she said. Then she spread out the gay sheet and waved it flaglike over her head. It showed a very pink Cupid in the act of launching a silver dart much bigger than himself, presumably at a lightly clad young person smiling down at him from a cloud.

"There is something prraphaelite almost in the simplicity of it," Jessie said gravely, but with twinkling eyes. Janie made a mutinous mouth at them and began to rummage in the card basket. Lily caught her hand, saying with a comprehending nod: "I have just thought! I know what we will do."

"What?" asked the others in the same breath. Lily ran through the cards in silence for a minute, then flung a handful of them into a work bag, saying:

"We will tempt fate in earnest. Put in your hand, Janie, and draw card. Whoever it may be, he gets this valentine."

"Major John Marshall Sterling," Janie read from the bit of pasteboard she had drawn. All of them laughed more than ever.

"Poor old major! I am sure he has forgotten what a valentine looks like," Jessie said, pasting the pink Cupid as she spoke.

"I don't believe he ever knew. He was born old. I am sure of it," Lily answered.

"No, he wasn't," she said. "I heard Auntie Louise say the other day that he was the gayest young fellow until he went west to fight Indians. Something dreadful must have happened there, for ever since he came back invalided he has seen just as we see him now."

"He is not really so old either," Lily said; "only 50. It is that troublesome bullet in his chest which makes his hair so gray, I dare say"—

"You are a destroyer of romance, Lily. You deserve to be severely suppressed," Jessie interrupted. "You ought to have left us the belief that it was unrequited love which had bleached his poll."

"Stop your nonsense and help me with these cards," Lily said. "Unless they are ready at once we will never get them sent in time. Valentines are good fun, but a valentine party is ever so much better."

"Wisdom, thy name is Lily," Jessie retorted, rolling up her eyes. Then the three fell silently and furiously to work upon the envelopes piled at one side of the table, addressing them and slipping inside cards which bade all Miss Estil's friends come and be merry at her house upon Feb. 14.

Perhaps it was automatic action; perhaps, also, fate guided her fingers. Janie never knew. The fact remains that one of the fairly engraved cards went to keep the pink Cupid company upon his journey to Major Sterling. In due season the post delivered both at the major's door. The major himself took them in and blushed through all his tan and grizzle at sight of the big envelope, which had a spray of roses and a pair of turtle doves embossed upon the flap.

"I wonder what girl is trying to guy me," he said as he sat down in his own snugger, tossing it to the other side of the table. In reality he was full of eager curiosity to see the inside of it, but a sense of what was seemly for a man of his gray hair made him leave it ostentatiously alone until he had read through all the morning's grist of letters. He even answered one or two of the most imperative and read another page of the morning paper before he allowed himself to touch his valentine.

"Really that is not so bad—not half so bad as it might have been," he said, holding the pink Cupid at arm's length. Through living so much alone he had got into a way of talking to himself. He had few visitors. His own man, Mulligan, was a model of discreet silence, and Marina, cook and housemaid, never ventured to address more than three consecutive words to "the master." Semioccasionally he spent an evening at the club. Once a year he made a round of ceremonious calls upon old friends—friends that had been his mother's rather than his own. Otherwise he kept entirely to himself.

That made talk, of course. His neighbors and their gossips could not understand why a retired officer, more than reasonably well to do outside of his half pay, should elect to live thus, more than half a hermit. What did it matter that he was a bachelor, without near ties of blood? There was Louise Estil, almost his age and single, devoting herself to many things, and especially keeping in touch with social life. The girls, Lily and Jessie and Janie, were not really her nieces, only the children of her step brothers and sisters. Yet she kept them about her half the time and gave them all sorts of pleasure.

"Good luck for some of us, I hope," the major said, laughing. "Do you know, Tom, it strikes me as a great scheme."

"Oh, I suppose you don't mind. Women must be all pretty well alike when one comes to your age," Tom said, a little stiffly. "But if you cared about one and saw her tag off with another fellow—well, I think you would see the difference."

Major Sterling knew all this. Sometimes he smiled over it. Often he sighed. The smile was for the hints of doubled down pages in his past; the sigh for the intolerable loneliness more and more enveloping his present. He had a man's memories of women whom he had fancied, some hotly for the minute, some delicately afar off and wavering. He had never seriously made love to any of them, mainly that he had been too busy with doing a man's part out on the frontier. He had always meant to marry; he might even have done it long ago, only that chance comes to your age," Tom said, a little stiffly. "But if you cared about one and saw her tag off with another fellow—well, I think you would see the difference."

"We are ready! Bring on your sacrifices!" Janie called from outside the door.

Tom had passed about small numbered slips. Now he called aloud, "Advance, No. 1, and meet your doom."

No. 1 was Timmy Logan, the minister's son, slight, mild, blue eyed and sentimental. A silent laugh went about when at the end of a minute he was seen to pass on into the long parlors with Mrs. Beckly, 40, fat and jolly, upon his arm.

"Lord! The misfits of this night!" Tom groaned as No. 2 went in. "Don't lose your nerve or your number, major. Maybe you'll get the youngest pretty girl of all."

"I'll be satisfied with any," Major Sterling answered. His next neighbor said in a stage whisper, "Tom would be jolly as a grig if he could just arrange to swap with whoever gets his cousin Jessie." Again Major Sterling smiled. It was so like the Tom of old, this wanting all things to give way for the gratification of his momentary whim.

"I don't choose at all. I am No. 1," Tom said, trying to look dignified. "We are both naughts, Aunt Louise and I. That shows the naughts are sometimes pretty significant figures."

The choosing went on rapidly. Fate was madly, merrily perverse. Nearly every couple was humorously mismatched. Major Sterling found himself paired with Janie Norton, and Tom's eyes flashed hate as he saw Jessie, his Jessie, pass out, foredoomed to the attentions of Royce Ford, his most dangerous rival. Lily fell to the lot of Mr. Ware, a widower, newly set out, and still in the first excess of widower folly.

"Now, do you like playing providence? I hear you are responsible for all this," Major Sterling said in Janie's ear as they watched the throng. She gave her shoulders the least possible shrug as she replied:

"I am not playing providence. I only wish I might."

"What would you do first?" he asked.

"Give all my friends just enough misery to accent their happiness and my enemies happiness enough to make their misery more miserable," she answered promptly.

"What an unamiable young person you

"H-m-m! This is shockingly inappropriate," he said at last, nodding to the Cupid. "The arrow is all very well—I have seen bigger ones, though I doubt if they were so dangerous. But why! Oh, why are you not shooting it at a man? You cannot be meant to personify me! I am the last fellow in the world for such a thing as that. I wonder who sent you. The lady there, up in the clouds, is not the least bit like anybody I know." With that he took up the envelope and carefully scrutinized the address. It was written in a big hand, fashionably angular, and noncommittal. As he fingered it he felt something inside. He turned it upside down, shook it and sent the card spinning to the other edge of the table.

"I see!" he said, his eyes twinkling. "Those wicked, wicked young persons Miss Estil harbors have plotted against us their elders and betters. They think I may be fooled into believing she had a hand in it. As if I did not know Louise Estil better than anybody in the world."

"Then in mind he raw over their long acquaintance. He had been dangerously near loving her back in the old days when she was his mother's pet, and Tom, her youngest stepbrother, his own especial chum. He remembered quite clearly how it had made his heart beat to see her come tripping up the walk, and how gloomy he had been for a whole week when Tom let him know, quite incidentally and as a matter of course, that Louise was going to marry young Cary, the railroad president's son. Then he had pulled himself together and gone west, putting her so completely out of his mind that he had felt only a mild surprise at meeting Cary ten years after with a wife upon his arm as unlike Louise as possible. And it had not given him the least thrill to come back and find her free. He had listened with only languid interest when a club veteran told him how Louise had sent away her rich lover for no other reason than that she did not choose to marry him.

"You do not expect me—not the least, young ladies," he said after a little, smiling at the faces their fancy conjured up.

"But I shall go to your party. More, I shall claim my rights as a valentine. As I remember, if you found out what girl had sent one you were entitled to kiss her in the face of daylight. I wonder how you will like that. I wonder still more if I shall have courage to carry through so daring an enterprise."

"I don't know what you mean," Janie protested, with, however, a suspicious red in her cheeks. Major Sterling looked down at her and shook his head, saying impersonally: "Of course I am not bold enough to assert that you do anything badly. But there are things that you do better than—well, tampering with the truth."

"Really, I don't know"—Janie began again, then stopped, arrested by a significant motion toward his breast pocket.

"I must be your enemy," he said, still smiling. "I have evidence right here—pink evidence, with a silver dart, and clouds and a lady who might easily catch cold."

"What a very remarkable sort of evidence," Janie said softly, her eyes by this time the very pattern of limpid innocence. "Still, I don't in the least see how you make out!"

"That it is happiness enough to increase my misery?" he interrupted. "You say that, yet know it brought me here."

"Could you be in a better place?" Janie queried. She was rapidly getting over the shock, of finding out that the staid major could be gallant upon occasion. He drew her hand closer within his arm as he answered: "No. I am more than pleased with the state of life wherein I now find myself. But think of having to give it up so soon! Don't you think a mummy that had by chance slipped out of caskets would find it a hard to think of going back into them?"

"I should not be sorry for—a mummy who need not go back," Janie said, looking sedulously away. Unconsciously Major Sterling sighed.

"No, I suppose not," he said thoughtfully, even a little wistfully. "If only I were like your Aunt Louise!"

"Why! Has Tom told you about that! Auntie will never forgive him. She did not mean to tell anybody, not even the minister, until just before—" Janie began, her eyes full of wonder. Major Sterling stopped her. He was equally bewildered, partly by what she had said, more by the implication of it.

"I have been told nothing. I don't know what you mean! Not the least in the world," he said, speaking very low. "But do tell me! Please! So much may depend on it. If I were like Aunt Louise—what?"

"Why, you might get married and live happy ever after," Janie said, looking down. "You won't tell it. She is going to marry next month. No, it is not Mr.

Cary. He courted her as soon as his wife died, but she would not look at him. None of us has seen our new uncle. She met him at the seashore. He is a genius, delicate, five years younger than she, and so rich he needs some one to take care of him very badly. At first she was afraid people would say she wanted his money. But love found a way around pride. Real love always does overcome everything."

"I wonder if it can overcome gray hair and 30 years," the major said, with a shake in his voice. Janie shot a glance at him. He was deadly pale. They had moved away from the crowd and stood off.

"YOU KNOW IT BROUGHT ME HERE." most alone upon the broad, lighted porch. She put both hands over his arm and leaned a little to him as she answered:

"I think, yes! I am sure it could, if you gave it a decent chance."

Six months after they were married. Cupid's random dart proved more effectual than many which were carefully aimed.

A Valentine.

Should we stray, lost within a lonesome land Where flowers refuse to bloom and deathful sand O'er sweeps the way by which we may return, Love will still lead, though, lost, we wait and yearn.

And if by chance of grief and sorrowing Our disjoined hands no longer clasp and cling, Some whispered word of love will find its place, Exalting us to newer peace and grace.

Let us twain keep our faith till death do part Us, thou and I! The world's in rhyme, sweet heart; Thy heart and mine are

Valentine.

With the valentine before him, On his knee,

What a precious thought came o'er him:

"Sweet Marie—

Did she send it? Does she love me?"

How he sighed!

"She's an angel far above me, But I wish her for my bride."

Then he kissed the scented letter On his knee,

"None could ever love her better— Sweet Marie!

Did she send it? Has she meant it? Wish I knew!"

Ah, the pity! Susie sent it, And he did not care for Sue!

EARL HOOKER HATON.

Valentine to a Musical Maid. In a truly awful manner You can pound the poor "planner," You can bawl, You have had a singing master, And can sing the very plaster Off the wall!

Just Horrid.

Five maskers, grand in dash and swell, Ogled a fair one to her dread. St. Valentine had marked them well, And straight to each this token sped:

"In this composite valentine Thy phiz and more beside pray see. I'll let thee choose the 'beaut' for thine— All maskers look alike to me."

Like Her Face.

Miss Cutting Very—Yes, May, dear, the valentine Charley sent you was so like you—so like your face. Miss May D'Upp—Like my face? "Yes, dear—hand painted, you know."

The hospitals of the metropolitan asylums board in London have 3,800 beds set apart for scarlet fever and only 700 for diphtheria.

CAUGHT IN THE FLAMES

Three Men Narrowly Escaped Suffocation.

APPLE'S STOCK WAS DESTROYED

The Fire Started Early This Morning, and Before the Department Could Be Summoned Was Almost Beyond Control. The Damage.

Fire was discovered at 3:30 o'clock this morning in the building occupied by J. L. Apple in Market street. An alarm was hastily sent to the fire station, and although the department responded quickly and the firemen worked hard after reaching the scene, the stock in the upper store was almost destroyed.

J. L. Apple, Isaac Apple and Joseph Davis slept in the room above the lower store. They were awakened soon after 3 o'clock by the smoke that had filled the room, and, hastening to the rear, found that the fire was there on the lower floor. At this time the gas light went out, and the party groped around in the dark for several minutes. At length the flames burst through the floor, and Isaac Apple jumped through them and escaped by the rear way. The others were forced back to the front of the building, and were released from their unenviable position by the firemen who soon had a ladder at one of the windows.

The fire meantime had been spreading rapidly. The room occupied by the ladies' furnishing department was almost gutted before the firemen had an opportunity to work. They then turned their attention to the other room and the fire was extinguished. The loss there was principally caused by smoke and water.

The heaviest loss falls on Mr. Apple, who valued his stock at about $6,500, and carried $4,500 insurance. He also lost $85 in money which was in the store. John Kerr owns the building, and does not know how much he will lose. The insurance is $2,000. Luckily the department succeeded in confining the fire to the upper store, or it is probable the block would have been destroyed.

The fire started in the rear of the building, and its cause is not known. Mr. Apple said today that he would likely continue business in the city but it would be in another location if he could find a suitable one. He and his companions still feel the effects of the smoke they inhaled.

DIED THIS MORNING.

Pneumonia Caused the Death of John Grosshans.

John Grosshans died this morning at his home in Broadway, pneumonia being the cause. Deceased was born at Kalb, Wortsburg, Germany, June 27, 1821, and came to America in 1842. He has since resided in St. Clair and Liverpool townships, in this county. He leaves his widow, Rebecca J. Grosshans, and four sons, George F. Grosshans, Benton Grosshans, Frank E. Grosshans, city solicitor, and Hollis E. Grosshans.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Riverview.

Lannahan Still Here.

Jos. Lannahan was not sent to Trumbull county this morning owing to the severity of the weather. He is suffering with typhoid fever, and to move him might cause a relapse. The trustees say they would rather pay his expenses for a few days than run the risk of moving him.

LAST OF HIS RACE

Creston Clarke Will Delight East Liverpool Play Goers.

This famous and justly popular player will appear at the Grand Opera House on February 18. Read what competent critics say about him:

"Creston Clarke, supported by Miss Adelaide Prince, and a strong supporting company of twenty people, will produce the 'Last of His Race.' Mr. Clarke, whose reputation on the American stage has always been associated with Shakespearean characters, has made an excursion into the field of the romantic drama, and his success thus far has been most gratifying. He has given 'The Last of His Race' a splendid equipment of scenery, and the production will be worth attending. Miss Adelaide Prince is given an opportunity of wearing some gowns that are described as superb. They are not of foreign importation, but were made by a leading Fifth avenue firm of modistes."

Sent Them Home.

The township trustees Saturday evening sent 12 persons to their homes at Long Reach on the Virginia.

When the fact became known that the parties had been sent home applications were made by two women and a man for a free trip but they were refused. The officials have determined to furnish no more free rides, and if any parties desire to go home they can either furnish the cash or walk.

Sent For the Police.

There was some trouble at the passenger station Sunday night when Watchman Mapel ejected a bum from the waiting room.

The individual became unruly and a telephone message was sent to the fire station. Officers Bryan and Terrance responded. When they arrived at the station the bum had gone. A careful search was made but without finding him.

Are You Saving Your Money

And depositing it in a TIME TRIED INSTITUTION where it will work for you and where you can GET ALL OR ANY PART of it conveniently and quickly if you need it? The POTTERS BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY is such an institution and you can take stock any time. Initiation fee only 25 cents for any number of shares. Now open each evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

A Chimney Fire.

The fire department Saturday evening responded to an alarm from box 34 at the corner of Second street and Hague alley. A chimney fire in the house occupied by Robert Hawkins was the cause. The fire was put out with a Babcock. The damage was slight.

Notified the Public.

"This house is rented." This sign is seen on the door of a vacant house in lower Broadway. The owner took this means of escaping the annoyance occasioned by the calls of people looking for a place to live.

Gone to Martin's Ferry.

George Matheny went to Martin's Ferry this morning where he will enter upon his duties at the plant of the West Virginia Glass company.

STAR BARGAIN STORE

NEW GOODS —

Our New Spring Goods will soon begin to arrive, for which we must have room, so our inventory prices which are lower than the lowest, are still in force. Come to our store and get a share of the wonderful bargains before it is too late.

Muslin Underwear

We received today 3 cases of muslin underwear which will go on sale tomorrow for less money than you can buy the material alone. We have not got space enough to tell you about the prices and styles, so come and see, if interested.

Wrappers.

10 dozen of the regular 75c wrappers reduced to 48c. Regular $1 wrappers for 69c. Our entire stock of fleeced wrappers at greatly reduced prices.

Wraps

Our entire stock of Ladies and Misses Jackets at one-third their original prices. Nothing reserved. Cloth and plush capes at half price. Come at once, as they are going very fast at such ridiculously low prices.

Lace Curtains.

Our entire stock of lace curtains at greatly reduced prices. 25 odd curtains at half price. 75c curtain ends at half marked prices.

Miscellaneous.

75c high bust corsets with shoulder straps for 47c. Ladies 25c ribbed vests and pants for 14c. 20 pound of 10c black yarn for 5c a skein. 8c 40 inch unbleached muslin for 4c. The best 7c 36 inch unbleached muslin for 4c. 5c and 6c prints for 3c. Wool socks for 8c. Men's and children's underwear at greatly reduced prices. Comforts and blankets at reduced prices. Remember! The place to save your money is the

STAR BARGAIN STORE,

138 and 140 Fifth Street,

CAUGHT IN THE FLAMES

Three Men Narrowly Escaped Suffocation.

APPLE'S STOCK WAS DESTROYED

The Fire Started Early This Morning, and Before the Department Could Be Summoned Was Almost Beyond Control. The Damage.

Fire was discovered at 3:30 o'clock this morning in the building occupied by J. L. Apple in Market street. An alarm was hastily sent to the fire station, and although the department responded quickly and the firemen worked hard after reaching the scene, the stock in the upper store was almost destroyed.

J. L. Apple, Isaac Apple and Joseph Davis slept in the room above the lower store. They were awakened soon after 3 o'clock by the smoke that had filled the room, and, hastening to the rear, found that the fire was there on the lower floor. At this time the gas light went out, and the party groped around in the dark for several minutes. At length the flames burst through the floor, and Isaac Apple jumped through them and escaped by the rear way. The others were forced back to the front of the building, and were released from their unenviable position by the firemen who soon had a ladder at one of the windows.

The fire meantime had been spreading rapidly. The room occupied by the ladies' furnishing department was almost gutted before the firemen had an opportunity to work. They then turned their attention to the other room and the fire was extinguished. The loss there was principally caused by smoke and water.

The heaviest loss falls on Mr. Apple, who valued his stock at about $6,500, and carried $4,500 insurance. He also lost $85 in money which was in the store. John Kerr owns the building, and does not know how much he will lose. The insurance is $2,000. Luckily the department succeeded in confining the fire to the upper store, or it is probable the block would have been destroyed.

The fire started in the rear of the building, and its cause is not known. Mr. Apple said today that he would likely continue business in the city but it would be in another location if he could find a suitable one. He and his companions still feel the effects of the smoke they inhaled.

DIED THIS MORNING.

Pneumonia Caused the Death of John Grosshans.

John Grosshans died this morning at his home in Broadway, pneumonia being the cause. Deceased was born at Kalb, Wortenburg, Germany, June 27, 1821, and came to America in 1842. He has since resided in St. Clair and Liverpool townships, in this county. He leaves his widow, Rebecca J. Grosshans, and four sons, George F. Grosshans, Benton Grosshans, Frank E. Grosshans, city solicitor, and Hollis E. Grosshans.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Riverview.

Lannahan Still Here.

Jos. Lannahan was not sent to Trumbull county this morning owing to the severity of the weather. He is suffering with typhoid fever, and to move him might cause a relapse. The trustees say they would rather pay his expenses for a few days than run the risk of moving him.

LAST OF HIS RACE

Creston Clarke Will Delight East Liverpool Play Goers.

This famous and justly popular player will appear at the Grand Opera House on February 18. Read what competent critics say about him:

"Creston Clarke, supported by Miss Adelaide Prince, and a strong supporting company of twenty people, will produce the 'Last of His Race.' Mr. Clarke, whose reputation on the American stage has always been associated with Shakespearean characters, has made an excursion into the field of the romantic drama, and his success thus far has been most gratifying. He has given 'The Last of His Race' a splendid equipment of scenery, and the production will be worth attending. Miss Adelaide Prince is given an opportunity of wearing some gowns that are described as superb. They are not of foreign importation, but were made by a leading Fifth avenue firm of modistes."

Sent Them Home.

The township trustees Saturday evening sent 12 persons to their homes at Long Reach on the Virginia.

When the fact became known that the parties had been sent home applications were made by two women and a man for a free trip but they were refused. The officials have determined to furnish no more free rides, and if any parties desire to go home they can either furnish the cash or walk.

Sent For the Police.

There was some trouble at the passenger station Sunday night when Watchman Mapel ejected a bum from the waiting room.

The individual became unruly and a telephone message was sent to the fire station. Officers Bryan and Terrance responded. When they arrived at the station the bum had gone. A careful search was made but without finding him.

Are You Saving Your Money

And depositing it in a TIME TRIED INSTITUTION where it will work for you and where you can GET ALL OR ANY PART OF it conveniently and quickly if you need it? The POTTERS BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY is such an institution and you can take stock any time. Initiation fee only 25 cents for any number of shares. Now open each evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

A Chimney Fire.

The fire department Saturday evening responded to an alarm from box 34 at the corner of Second street and Hague alley. A chimney fire in the house occupied by Robert Hawkins was the cause. The fire was put out with a Babcock. The damage was slight.

Notified the Public.

"This house is rented." This sign is seen on the door of a vacant house in lower Broadway. The owner took this means of escaping the annoyance occasioned by the calls of people looking for a place to live.

Gone to Martin's Ferry.

George Matheny went to Martin's Ferry this morning where he will enter upon his duties at the plant of the West Virginia Glass company.

STAR BARGAIN STORE

NEW GOODS —

Our New Spring Goods will soon begin to arrive, for which we must have room, so our inventory prices which are lower than the lowest, are still in force. Come to our store and get a share of the wonderful bargains before it is too late.

Muslin Underwear

We received today 3 cases of muslin underwear, which will go on sale tomorrow for less money than you can buy the material alone. We have not got space enough to tell you about the prices and styles, so come and see, if interested.

Wrappers.

10 dozen of the regular 75c wrappers reduced to 48c. Regular $1 wrappers for 69c. Our entire stock of fleeced wrappers at greatly reduced prices.

Wraps

Our entire stock of Ladies and Misses Jackets at one-third their original prices. Nothing reserved. Cloth and plush capes at half price. Come at once, as they are going very fast at such ridiculously low prices.

Lace Curtains.

Our entire stock of lace curtains at greatly reduced prices. 25 odd curtains at half price. 75c curtain ends at half marked prices.

Miscellaneous.

75c high bust corsets with shoulder straps for 47c. Ladies 25c ribbed vests and pants for 14c. 20 pound of 10c black yarn for 5c a skein. 8c 40 inch unbleached muslin for 4c. The best 7c 36 inch unbleached muslin for 4c. 5c and 6c prints for 3c. Wool sox for 8c. Men's and childrens underwear at greatly reduced prices. Comforts and blankets at reduced prices. Remember! The place to save your money is the

STAR BARGAIN STORE,

138 and 140 Fifth Street,

MATTIE EOFF GOT AWAY

But Was Captured Again In Second Street.

THE FOUGHT WITH THE POLICE

Being Taken to Jail In the Patrol—Mayor Gilbert Gave Specific Instructions to the Officers Regarding Fast Driving In the Streets.

No arrests were made yesterday or last night, but Saturday night two unfortunate were locked up. Late in the evening Officer Jennings captured Edward Bunting, of Wellsville, and Mattie Eoff in an alley leading from Broadway. Both were acting disorderly, and the woman was drunk. As the officer was waiting for the patrol the woman showed fight and broke away. Bunting was placed in jail, charged with being disorderly. A search was made for the woman, and a short time afterward she was captured in Second street. The patrol was called and again the woman fought, but was overpowered and placed in jail, charged with being drunk and disorderly. At the hearing yesterday Bunting was fined $7.60 and the woman $9.60. Both paid, and were released.

Mayor Gilbert and Chief Johnson Saturday afternoon ordered all the patrolmen to report early yesterday morning. This was done, and the mayor, before the officers left city hall, told them several things that must be done, particularly the arrest of all fast drivers. Special attention was given to the streets in which the racing has been going on. The mayor concluded his talk by saying: "If some of the people who have horses in this city do not know how to drive they will have to come down and pay a fine. Fast driving must be stopped and that at once."

SOMETHING WILL DROP.

At Least That Is What Bud Hilliard Says.

B. I. Hilliard, of Chester, who was arrested last week on a charge preferred against him by Toll Keeper Todd, said this morning that he expected something would drop this evening or tomorrow. Hilliard asserts that he has been abused in many ways and now it is his turn to act. When asked who was his attorney he refused to answer, saying, this would also be known in time.

Too Cold For Comfort.

The clerks in the freight office this morning were all wearing their overcoats, as there was no stove in the office. The desks, racks and other matter now in the old office will be moved to the new upstairs office by tomorrow evening, and Agent Thomas said this morning he thought the force would be working upstairs by Wednesday. All the connections have been placed, and the painters have almost finished their task. The new office will be one of the neatest on the line when it is completed.

Rain Caused Delay.

The rain of last week caused some delay in the completion of the water tank at the light plant. This morning work was resumed and by Thursday it is expected water will be running in it. A new boiler pump has been ordered by Superintendent McKeahan. It is expected within a few days, and will be used to pump water from the tank into the boilers.

Sued For a Bill.

Miss Kate Stein has entered suit before Justice Manley against Richard Cochran, to recover an eight weeks board bill amounting to $24. The case will be heard Thursday.

Another Physician.

Another physician will locate in this city in the near future. He is coming from Canton, and has already rented a Sixth street house near the Diamond.

Bought Some Land.

Geo. H. Owen on Saturday purchased two acres of ground north of the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks and east of the East End flint mill from Albert Martin for $1,000.

Will Rest a Week.

Several of the employees of the Mc-Nicol decorating shop were laid off Saturday evening for one week, owing to a scarcity of ware.

Left the Track.

A street car jumped the track yesterday afternoon at the Horn switch, and passengers were transferred for some time.

Valentine masquerade, Monday evening, Feb. 14, at Brunt's.

What You Can Do With 99c.

IT WILL BUY A PAIR OF

Men's fine, plain or tip, and lace or congress shoes, 99c.

Men's working shoes, tap sole, heavy, buckle or lace, 99c.

Boys' fine dress or heavy lace shoes, 99c. Youths' fine dress or heavy lace shoes, 99c. Misses' fine dongola, spring heel, lace or button, 99c.

Ladies' very nice dongola, new style, pat. leather tip, lace or button shoes, 99c.

The above are "CORKERS" for the money. See them at

J. R. WARNER & Co's,

DIAMOND,
East Liverpool.

STRONG AGAIN! Sexine Oily

WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY Sexine Oily. They have stood the test of years, and have cured thousands of cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleeplessness and Varicose, Atrophy, &c. They clear the brain, strengthen the circulation, make digestion perfect, and impart a healthy vigor to the whole being. All drains and losses are checked permanently. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often worries them into Insanity, Consumption or Death. Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, Druggist, East Liverpool.

PITIED LOVERS' WOES.

The Late Rev. Dr. Houghton as the Friend of Lovers In Distress.

Dr. George H. Houghton of the Church of the Transfiguration in New York city is among the absent this St. Valentine's season. He died very suddenly last November. The kind hearted pastor of the "Little Church Around the Corner" was most widely known on account of his Christian liberality in burying from his modest but still orthodox and aristocratic church the social sinners as well as the saintly righteous. He also gained repute as a sort of a latter day St. Valentine, or a friend of lovers in despair or distress.

"It is not true that I am the St. Valentine of Greater New York and vicinity," said the genial rector, with a smile, when spoken to about this phase of his pastoral duties; "most certainly not. I do not pose as being a saint of any kind, but I do love young people, and if my sympathy for them in their rights and wrongs entitles me to become a competitor of the good old priest who was beheaded in the days of Claudius on account of his popularity with lovers, why, then, I suppose that I may be called the modern St. Valentine.

"I marry all who come to me and want to be married. Of course I have to use a great deal of judgment in these cases and show almost the wisdom of the serpent. I put both the man and woman under oath and make them solemnly swear that they are free to marry. If they look very young, I make tolerably sure that they are of marriageable age. Then I go ahead, and sometimes I help out the marriage service with a little private prayer of my own that they may be happy together. Richard Harding Davis' Van Bibber story of the young runaways whom I married is not overdrawn. They were far from home. They were young and alone in New York. Were they not better married?

"What do I regard as my special forte? Well, perhaps it is that of advice giving. I think I am a born peacemaker, and I know that with the grace of God I have patched up many a home quarrel.

"Once upon a time there came to me a young man carrying two letters from his ladylove. One of the letters called him her lovey and her dove. The other was very cold and requested that their marriage be put off six months.

"What shall I do?" asked he, with the tears running down his cheeks.

"Answer the lovey, dove letter," said I, "and let the other go." He did so, and in a few days they were happily married. It takes tact and management to make things go smoothly with our frail human machinery.

"Are such consultations frequent? They are. This morning at 5 o'clock I went out of town to see some people who are at sixes and sevens with each other and the world. I got home at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and before I had finished my dinner a young man—a fine young fellow—came to ask advice. And now I am as tired as four or five dogs and couldn't do any more talking even if I had a chance to do a bit of matchmaking, which I so dearly love.

"Do I want to become a love saint some day, like St. Valentine? Oh, no, indeed. I only want to be a good priest of my church. But if people want to call me the modern St. Valentine, they may do so in welcome."

LINCOLN FEARED McCLELLAN.

A Sensational Interview Revealed by General Lew Wallace.

LEBANON, Ind., Feb. 14.—Among the prominent guests at the Lincoln banquet here was General Lew Wallace. During his address, he referred to the dark days of the war, when General McClellan had been driven back to Harrison's Landing by General Lee. At this time, Wallace said:

"I was near Washington and went there with a party to see the president. I thought he was sick, but he said, no, he was well enough, but that he was anxiously waiting for the time to arrive when a boat would start for Harrison's Landing, that he wanted to go and persuade General McClellan not to surrender the army to General Lee."

Wallace said he had never told this story before, except privately to friends.

REV. DR. HALL'S CHURCH INTACT.

It Will Suffer No Disruption—New Trustees Proposed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The church of Dr. John Hall, the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian, will suffer no disruption through the recent withdrawals of most of the elders and trustees. At the services Sunday it was announced that a meeting will be held today for the purpose of filling the seven vacancies on the board of trustees.

Six nominations for trusteeships will be presented to the congregation at this meeting, as follows: General Samuel Thomas, railroad president; James Talcott and George F. Vistor, drygoods merchants; W. R. Stuart, banker; Jas. P. Britton, broker, and John W. Anchiss, a former trustee. The seventh member has not been selected.

Have You Inspected It?—

Inspected What?

Why the Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review
Job Office

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the
News Review
Job Department.

MATTIE EOFF GOT AWAY

But Was Captured Again In Second Street.

HE FOUGHT WITH THE POLICE

Being Taken to Jail In the Patrol—Mayor Gilbert Gave Specific Instructions to the Officers Regarding Fast Driving In the Streets.

No arrests were made yesterday or last night, but Saturday night two unfortunates were locked up.

Late in the evening Officer Jennings captured Edward Bunting, of Wellsville, and Mattie Eoff in an alley leading from Broadway. Both were acting disorderly, and the woman was drunk. As the officer was waiting for the patrol the woman showed fight and broke away. Bunting was placed in jail, charged with being disorderly. A search was made for the woman, and a short time afterward she was captured in Second street. The patrol was called and again the woman fought, but was overpowered and placed in jail, charged with being drunk and disorderly. At the hearing yesterday Bunting was fined $7.60 and the woman $9.60. Both paid, and were released.

Mayor Gilbert and Chief Johnson Saturday afternoon ordered all the patrolmen to report early yesterday morning. This was done, and the mayor, before the officers left city hall, told them several things that must be done, particularly the arrest of all fast drivers. Special attention was given to the streets in which the racing has been going on.

The mayor concluded his talk by saying: "If some of the people who have horses in this city do not know how to drive they will have to come down and pay a fine. Fast driving must be stopped and that at once."

SOMETHING WILL DROP.

At Least That Is What Bud Hilliard Says.

B. I. Hilliard, of Chester, who was arrested last week on a charge preferred against him by Toll Keeper Todd, said this morning that he expected something would drop this evening or tomorrow. Hilliard asserts that he has been abused in many ways and now it is his turn to act. When asked who was his attorney he refused to answer, saying, this would also be known in time.

Too Cold For Comfort.

The clerks in the freight office this morning were all wearing their overcoats, as there was no stove in the office. The desks, racks and other matter now in the old office will be moved to the new upstairs office by tomorrow evening, and Agent Thomas said this morning he thought the force would be working upstairs by Wednesday. All the connections have been placed, and the painters have almost finished their task. The new office will be one of the neatest on the line when it is completed.

Rain Caused Delay.

The rain of last week caused some delay in the completion of the water tank at the light plant. This morning work was resumed and by Thursday it is expected water will be running in it. A new boiler pump has been ordered by Superintendent McKeehan. It is expected within a few days, and will be used to pump water from the tank into the boilers.

Sued For a Bill.

Miss Kate Stein has entered suit before Justice Manley against Richard O'Gorman, to recover an eight weeks board bill amounting to $24. The case will be heard Thursday.

Another Physician.

Another physician will locate in this city in the near future. He is coming from Canton, and has already rented a Sixth street house near the Diamond.

Bought Some Land.

Geo. H. Owen on Saturday purchased two acres of ground north of the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks and east of the East End flint mill from Albert Martin for $1,000.

Will Rest a Week.

Several of the employees of the Mc-Nicol decorating shop were laid off Saturday evening for one week, owing to a scarcity of ware.

Left the Track.

A street car jumped the track yesterday afternoon at the Horn switch, and passengers were transferred for some time.

Valentine masquerade, Monday evening, Feb. 14, at Brunt's.

What You Can Do With 99c.

IT WILL BUY A PAIR OF

Men's fine, plain or tip, and lace or congress shoes, 99c.

Men's working shoes, tap sole, heavy, buckle or lace, 99c.

Boys' fine dress or heavy lace shoes, 99c.

Youths' fine dress or heavy lace shoes, 99c.

Misses' fine dongola, spring heel, lace or button, 99c.

Ladies' very nice dongola, new style, pat. leather tip, lace or button shoes, 99c.

The above are "CORKERS" for the money.

See them at

J. R. WARNER & Co's,

DIAMOND,
East Liverpool.

STRONG AGAIN! Sex-in-e-Pills

WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY TO TRADEMAK

They have stood the test of years, and have cured thousands of cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleeplessness and Varicose, Atrophy, &c. They clear the brain, strengthen the circulation, make digestion perfect, and impart a healthy complexion. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often wrecks them into Insanity, Consumption or Death. Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., CLEVELAND, O.

For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, Druggist, East Liverpool.

PITIED LOVERS' WOES.

The Late Rev. Dr. Houghton as the Friend of Lovers in Distress.

Dr. George H. Houghton of the Church of the Transfiguration in New York city is among the absent this St. Valentine's season. He died very suddenly last November. The kind hearted pastor of the "Little Church Around the Corner" was most widely known on account of his Christian liberality in burying from his modest but still orthodox and aristocratic church the social sinners as well as the saintly righteous. He also gained repute as a sort of a latter day St. Valentine, or a friend of lovers in despair or distress.

"It is not true that I am the St. Valentine of Greater New York and vicinity," said the genial rector, with a smile, when spoken to about this phase of his pastoral duties; "most certainly not. I do not pose as being a saint of any kind, but I do love young people, and if my sympathy for them in their rights and wrongs entitles me to become a competitor of the good old priest who was beheaded in the days of Claudius on account of his popularity with lovers, why, then, I suppose that I may be called the modern St. Valentine.

"I marry all who come to me and want to be married. Of course I have to use a great deal of judgment in these cases and show almost the wisdom of the serpent. I put both the man and woman under oath and make them solemnly swear that they are free to marry. Then I go ahead, and sometimes I help out the marriage service with a little private prayer of my own that they may be happy together. Richard

Harding Davis' Van Bibber story of the young runaways whom I married is not overdrawn. They were far from home.

They were young and alone in New York.

Were they not better married?

"What do I regard as my special forte?

Well, perhaps it is that of advice giving.

I think I am a born peacemaker, and I know that with the grace of God I have patched up many a home quarrel.

"Once upon a time there came to me a young man carrying two letters from his ladylove. One of the letters called him her lovey and her dove. The other was very cold and requested that their marriage be put off six months.

"What shall I do?" asked he, with the tears running down his cheeks.

"Answer the lovey, dove letter," said I,

"and let the other go." He did so, and in a few days they were happily married.

It takes tact and management to make things go smoothly with our frail human machinery.

"Are such consultations frequent? They are. This morning at 5 o'clock I went out of town to see some people who are at sixes and sevens with each other and the world. I got home at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and before I had finished my dinner a young man—a fine young fellow—came to ask advice. And now I am as tired as four or five dogs and couldn't do any more talking even if I had a chance to do a bit of matchmaking, which I so dearly love.

"Do I want to become a love saint some day, like St. Valentine? Oh, no, indeed. I only want to be a good priest of my church. But if people want to call me the modern St. Valentine, they may do so in welcome."

LINCOLN FEARED McCLELLAN.

A Sensational Interview Revealed by General Lew Wallace.

LEBANON, Ind., Feb. 14.—Among the prominent guests at the Lincoln banquet here was General Lew Wallace. During his address, he referred to the dark days of the war, when General McClellan had been driven back to Harrison's Landing, that he wanted to go and persuade General McClellan not to surrender the army to General Lee. At this time, Wallace said:

"I was near Washington and went there with a party to see the president. I thought he was sick, but he said, no, he was well enough, but that he was anxiously waiting for the time to arrive when a boat would start for Harrison's Landing, that he wanted to go and persuade General McClellan not to surrender the army to General Lee."

Wallace said he had never told this story before, except privately to friends.

REV. DR. HALL'S CHURCH INTACT.

It Will Suffer No Disruption—New Trustees Proposed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The church of Dr. John Hall, the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian, will suffer no disruption through the recent withdrawals of most of the elders and trustees. At the services Sunday it was announced that a meeting will be held today for the purpose of filling the seven vacancies on the board of trustees.

Six nominations for trusteeships will be presented to the congregation at this meeting, as follows: General Samuel Thomas, railroad president; James Talcott and George F. Vistor, drygoods merchants; W. R. Stuart, banker; Jas. P. Britton, broker, and John W. Auchincloss, a former trustee. The seventh member has not been selected.

Have You Inspected It?—

Inspected What?

Why the Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the
News Review
Job Department.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY

THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.

[Entered as second class matter at the East

Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One Year in Advance ..... $5.00

Three Months ..... 1.25

By the Week ..... 10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEB. 14.

THE De Lorme incident is not without its uses, since it shows the cordial hatred which the average Spaniard has for the United States.

THE condition of the roads of Columbian county is the best possible argument for legislation that will provide for a system of good highways.

THE Spanish situation will continue to interest Americans until the country is convinced that we are to get something other than the hot end of the poker.

THE right spirit is abroad in East Liverpool at present. It needs but a little care and that spirit will show itself at the Republican primaries by the nomination of the right kind of men for city positions. This town is tired of misgovernment.

IF the coming congressional campaign is to be the old fight of the last presidential election over again, the Democrats cannot but expect an uphill struggle from the start. Then they cried calamity, now they do not dare it. Then we were told of disaster should McKinley be elected, now they cannot go before the country and show that such disaster has come. If the Democrats are wise they will not make silver the issue.

WHEN the Republicans of Ohio decide to forget their differences and agree to settle down to a vigorous campaign against the common enemy, the chances for success will increase wonderfully. The people are with Republicanism, the great majority favor those principles which mean prosperity, but the constant wrangling of a few leaders in an endeavor to embroil all their friends cannot always be endured. Truly in unity there is strength.

SENATOR GARFIELD's bill introducing the merit system of appointment in the state and municipal governments of Ohio may or may not become a law, probably not, but it shows the growth of sentiment in that direction. Ten years ago it would have been laughed to scorn. Today it is taken seriously. Perhaps the next general assembly will be so far advanced as to see the necessity of transacting public business with the care bestowed on private affairs. Then the bill will pass.

THE SMILEY BILL.

The county salary measure most popular at present is known as the Smiley bill. It provides for the selection of a commission of seven citizens in each county, whose duty it will be to decide the salary to be paid each official. The work of the commission is to be submitted to the people, and if it is ratified at the polls the new order will prevail. The plan is well worth consideration, its simplicity commanding it at once to the public. Its adoption would do away with what might prove costly complications.

GIVING OUT THE SPOILS.

The individual, who introduced into the general assembly the bill which allows the county executive committees of political parties to give out the public printing, should be stowed safely away on the political shelf when next he asks his constituents for office. His views of public property and the manner in which public funds should be handled do not accord with any well regulated ideas of good government. If he were not on the surface so void of good sense he might be a dangerous legislator.

Will Open a Store.

Thomas Porter left for Allegheny this morning when he will enter the dry goods business with his brother in the Fifth ward.

WELLSVILLE.

TAKEN TO THE WORKS

Bob Downard Got a Salty Sentence.

THE NEW PATROL WAGON USED

Poor Director Frazier Instituted the Proceedings, Officers Thorn and Morgan Made the Arrest, and Squire Riley Did the Rest-All the News.

Acting Mayor Riley has had a number of cases to occupy his attention since he was appointed by Mayor Jones to look after affairs at city hall.

Bob Downard was arrested Saturday afternoon and taken to jail by Officers Thorn and Morgan. He was drunk, and the officers took him to jail in a wheelbarrow. He was charged with drunkenness and vagrancy by Poor Director Frazier, and Squire Riley gave him two months in the works. He was taken to Canton by Chief Warren this morning.

William Marshall and Harry Roberts, the boys arrested for larceny, were sent to Lisbon. They will probably be sent to the Lancaster institution.

Alvin Hayzler was arrested by Chief Warren, charged with being drunk. He paid $1 and costs.

Harvey Schekler was charged with drunkenness by Officer Morgan.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. George Hamilton and son went to Salineville this morning.

Philip McLean is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

Master Mechanic Sweeley was called to Ft. Wayne on business this morning. J. S. Coats is in town today.

Howard Glenn, who has been off duty since Dec. 24, with fever, is again able to resume his duties at Cope's hardware store.

The News of Wellsville.

Mr. Ross Noble and wife and Rev. H. W. Lowry went to Irondale on this morning's train to attend the funeral of the infant child of Charles Mackey. The funeral party came in on the noon train and were met by carriages which conveyed them to the Brick church, where the remains were interred.

Invitations are out for a thimble party to be given by Miss Jennie Jenkins, Main street, next Thursday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock.

Miss Maud Williamson, of the West End, entertains friends at 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, in honor of the Misses Archer, of Burgettstown, Pa.

The ladies of the Episcopal church cleared about $30 at their supper last night.

Evangelistic services will continue in the Methodist Episcopal church this week. For the next three evenings the services are especially for the Sabbath school. Last night's sermon was a very interesting one from "No man cares for my soul," by the pastor, Doctor Reager. A class of eight firemen were up for preliminary examination yesterday.

Meetings are announced to begin Feb. 23 and continue till March 6 at the old mission building at Main and Fourteenth streets.

John Whitacre, of Center street, died about 5:30 o'clock last evening. He was eighty-four years of age. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made but it is expected that interment will take place at Bayard.

A Note of Warning.

A number of the remedies commonly used for throat trouble have but little merit. The indiscriminate and careless use of some of them is attended with positive danger.

As a prominent example, Chlorate of Potash probably does a great deal more harm than good. Many people, when suffering from sore throat and like troubles, carry crystals or tablets of Chlorate of Potash in their pockets, and eat them almost like candy. Chlorate of Potash has a decided direct action on the kidneys and its unwise use in frequent and large doses irritates these organs and leads to really serious results, especially so in children.

Some may think this is sounding a false and needless alarm but as a single proof we wish to state that we have before us the November, 1894, copy of the Indiana Medical Journal, wherein are reported two deaths clearly due directly to this habit of using Chlorate of Potash with no regard to its powerful properties.

In the past there may have been some excuse for people trifling with dangerous and powerful drugs in the home treatment of Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy, as there was a lack of a valuable cure for these diseases. A remedy has recently been placed on sale specially for this class of troubles and it is meeting with a well-merited success, as every prudent mother wants such a remedy at hand. Its name is Tonsilene. It never fails. Your dealer has it in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. Edwin Weary was a Pittsburgh visitor today.

Henry Porter was in Allegheny on business today.

W. H. Thompson was a Pittsburgh visitor yesterday.

Will Norman, of Fourth street, spent today in Allegheny.

Miss Violet Hunter is visiting friends in New Brighton.

A. Fritz, of Third street, was in Pittsburgh today on business.

J. A. Smith returned home this morning from Summittville.

Charles Hutchinson spent Sunday with his parents in Georgetown.

Mrs. D. K. Mason, of Beaver Falls, is the guest of friends in this city.

Edward O'Connor, of Monroe street, left this morning for Aliquippa.

Miss Lydia Bennett, of Pittsburgh, spent Sunday with her parents in this city.

B. C. Ansley has returned from a visit with his parents in Madison township.

Miss Clara Wright, of Hookstown, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Reed, Gardendale.

The Misses Archer, of Burgettstown, Pa., are visiting the family of T. F. Anderson, East End.

Mrs. Frank Iden, who has been visiting in the city, returned to her home in Beaver Saturday evening.

Mr. Moore, of the local staff of the Beaver Falls Tribune, was in the city on business Saturday afternoon.

Miss Nettie Davis, who has been the guest of friends here for several weeks, returned Saturday night to her home in Cleveland.

Mrs. Linder, of Coraopolis, is the guest of Mrs. Pittenger. The lady was formerly a resident of the city, but has not been here for many years.

Will Soon Have a Library.

The library project at the First M. E. church will be revived in the near future. Many volumes have been promised to the Sunday school, and it is expected they will have no trouble in raising the necessary 150 books with which to open the library.

Collecting Fines.

The mayor this afternoon secured a number of old fines that have been standing uncollected for several months. A number of executions will be issued against those who owe bills at city hall, and unless paid other measures will be taken.

Badly Burned.

Mrs. Anna Smith, of Hookstown, was badly burned about the arms and hands Saturday by the overturning of a lamp. A physician was summoned who dressed the burns and today she was resting easy. Mrs. Smith is well known in this place.

Attracted a Crowd.

A fight between two workmen at the Dresden pottery early this morning attracted a large crowd. The dispute was over some money one of the participants claimed the other owed him. At a late hour no arrests had been made.

Rendered a Judgment.

The case of James Hadley versus J. J. Bell for $16, claimed due for wages, was heard to a jury this morning in the court of Squire Hill and a judgment rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $11.50.

Injured the Pavement.

The ice gorge in the hole in Avondale street broke yesterday, and ruined about 30 feet of sidewalk in front of the home of George Potter. The street force are today repairing the damage.

Will Be Heard Thursday.

An attachment action was commenced Saturday by C. Metsch against J. J. Schnegg for $42.44. The case will be heard Thursday by Squire Hill.

A Fireman Ill.

Samuel Smith, night fireman at the Standard pottery, is ill at his home in Cannon's Mill, suffering with an attack of typhoid fever.

ATTENTION DIPPERS.

Dippers, Local union No. 18, will hold a special open meeting Tuesday, Feb. 15, at Brotherhood hall. All dippers invited.

Out of Court.

The Brown case, that has been before the mayor for over a week, will, it was said today, be settled out of court.

Improving the Office.

Improvements are being made to the office of the Thompson House.

BENHHEIM'S

BENDHEIM'S

TWO WEEKS

more and the greatest shoe sale that ever took place in East Liverpool will be a thing of the past. To be pleasantly remembered by those who were shrewd enough to take advantage of a golden opportunity, and to be regretted by those who never see any advantage until after they are gone.

Entire Stock Without Exception Sold at Reduced Prices.

75¢ will buy Misses and children's shoes reduced from $1.25 and $1.50.

$1.39 will buy Misses cloth top and kid button shoes reduced from $2.00.

17¢ will buy Women's finest quality rubbers, wide toes and mostly all sizes, worth 40 and 50c.

$2.37 will buy Women's hand welt and hand turned needle or button shoes, reduced from $4 to $4.50.

$2.50 will buy Men's W. L. Douglas $3 shoes.

$1.98 will buy Women's hand turned and Goodyear welt sewed button shoes reduced from $3.

$1.69 will buy Women's box calf lace shoes with double soles, reduced from $2.25.

98¢ will buy Children's hand turned and Goodyear welted button shoes, sizes 8½ to 11 reduced from $1.75.

$3.50 will buy Men's best hand sewed cordovan shoes, all styles and sizes reduced from $5.00.

89 pairs Women's $2.50, $3.00 and $4.00 shoes—odds and ends, choice from lot $1.39

G. Bendheim & Co.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

A GARZA CONSPIRATOR DYING.

Confinement of a Military Prison Ruined His Health.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 14.—Colonel Nieves Hernandez, who was suspected of complicity in the Garza conspiracy and was tried by court-martial and sentenced to death, is now dying at the Santiago military prison. He was of strong constitution, but an inactive life has told on him and he is slowly wasting away. The evidence against him satisfied the tribunals, but his friends believe in his innocence, although the circumstantial evidence was strong.

Dominguez Cowan, a member of the Cuban revolutionary junta of New York and head of the Cuban committee here, is dying. He has been very useful to the Cuban cause and will be a loss to the patriots.

Bad Negro Used His Gun.

MARION, O., Feb. 14.—Winfield Lewis stole up behind James Woods in his lodgings and shot him in the back of the head, killing him. He then shot at every colored person in sight, wounding two slightly and one, Lizzie Hines Johnson, fatally. All concerned were colored and had come here from Columbus to work on a sewer.

Accused of Counterfeiting.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 14.—Taddo Tuexdo, a young Italian, has been arrested on a charge of uttering counterfeit money. He is wanted by the Chicago police.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR TOWNSHIP CLERK.

J. N. HANLEY.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR MAYOR.

E. A. STEVENSON.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR MAYOR.

JOHN W. WYMAN.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR TOWNSHIP CLERK.

JOHN R. REARK.

Subject to the decision of the Republican primaries.

FOR MAYOR.

</div

MRS. JANE BOYCE DEAD

Passed Suddenly Away This Morning.

SHE WAS AS WELL AS USUAL

Until After 10 O'clock When She Complained of Pains In Her Chest, and Before a Physician Could Be Called the End Had Come.

Mrs. Jane Harker Boyce, wife of Hon. David Boyce, president of the First National bank, died suddenly at her home, Jackson and Second streets, this morning.

Mrs. Boyce has not been ill, although she complained last week of a pain in her chest. This morning she was as well as usual, and was preparing dinner. The servant was in the basement laundry when she heard a tapping on the floor. Going upstairs she found Mrs. Boyce lying on a couch and suffering great pain. She said her chest hurt her, but did not want a physician summoned. When she did not show signs of improvement the servant became alarmed, and ran to call Mrs. Harker and Mrs. H. L. Simms. When Mrs. Simms reached the house she saw that Mrs. Boyce was dangerously ill, and telephoned for a physician. She then knelt by the lady and put her arm about her, the end coming in a few minutes afterward. Death was due to heart disease.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made, but interment will be made in Riverview.

Mrs. Boyce was born in Staffordshire 71 years ago, and came to this country with her father in 1839, having resided since that time in this place. She was married to David Boyce in 1853. Mrs. Bessie Pittinger, Miss Kate Harker and Miss Agnes Harker are half sisters, and Thomas Harker is a half brother. There are a number of other relatives in the city.

Mrs. Boyce was widely known in the city as Aunt Jane, and was universally esteemed and beloved. She was a conscientious Christian, being a member of the First Presbyterian church. Charitable and kind to the poor, she performed many acts of kindness, of which no one but herself and the people she befriended knew, and they have sustained a severe loss in her death.

Had she lived until next Thursday she would have been 71 years of age, and tomorrow is the forty-fifth anniversary of her wedding.

There are few men in the city better known than Mr. Boyce, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

NO ANSWERS

To the Letters Asking About Road Improvements.

Clerk Hanley has not yet received answers to the communications sent out in search of information regarding the construction of good roads. Until some information can be obtained the committee appointed by council can do nothing.

Narrow Escape.

This morning there came near being a serious accident at the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery.

The force were at work drawing a biscuit kiln when a bung broke, causing two rings of saggers to fall. The employees were able to get out of the kiln before the saggers dropped or someone would have been seriously injured.

Fumigated a House.

Sanitary Officer Burgess yesterday fumigated the house of Frank Hoag, of Lincoln avenue, and today will fumigate the home of John Larcombe, Minerva street, the scarlet fever patients having entirely recovered.

The case in the West End is rapidly recovering and it is thought will soon be out of danger.

In a New Position.

Will Fleming, of Washington street, who has occupied the position of yard brakeman at the Wellsville shops, will leave Wednesday for Buffalo, where he has secured a position in the yards of the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad. He has many friends in the city who will wish him success.

To Meet Local Players.

C. L. Kennedy, the well known checker player of Minerva, is visiting friends in the city, and a tournament will be held this evening, where he will meet the best local checker players.

Resumed Operations.

The ferryboat Dispatch resumed operations this afternoon after being tied in for several months.

KEEPING IT VERY QUIET

An Attempt at Suicide Yesterday.

VICTIM TOOK SOME POISON

But a Physician Was Called In Time to Save His Life, and, Upon Being Pledged to Secrecy, Refuses to Say a Word. Much Mystery.

Some one of East Liverpool's residents attempted suicide yesterday, but the physician who was called to save his life will not say a word about it.

The matter is being kept very quiet, but the doctor acknowledged to the News Review that he had been called to attend a case of that kind. Poison had been used, but the attempt was discovered in time to prevent serious results. The patient has not yet recovered entirely, but is out of danger. No serious results are anticipated.

The mystery surrounding the matter prompts the belief that there are unusual circumstances which would doubtless make an interesting story if given to the public.

On the River.

The river has risen since Saturday and the marks at the wharf this morning showed 20.6 feet and stationary.

All the Sunday boats, Ben Hur, Kanawha and Keystone State, passed up on time yesterday, and all had good passenger lists and large cargoes.

The Ben Hur and Keystone State will be down this evening.

Considerable coal is being sent south on the present rise. Among the boats that have passed this port on their way south since Saturday evening are: Coal City, Tom Dodsworth, J. C. Risher, John W. Ailes, Raymond Horner, Fallie, Tom Reese No. 2, Mariner, Fred Wilson, Sam Brown, Sam Clark, Hunter No. 2, Dick Fulton, W. G. Horner, Dave Wood, Volunteer, light.

Passed up—Courier, John Moren, James Moren.

Business at this port good.

Crossed the Hudson on Floating Ice.

Mark Lounsberry, Jr., an employee of the Newburg ferry, accomplished a perilous feat the other morning on a wager in crossing the Hudson river from Fishkill Landing to Newburg on the ice, which consisted largely of floating cakes. Lounsberry left the Fishkill long wharf at 10 o'clock, reaching Newburg after walking three-quarters of an hour on the ice, stepping from cake to cake. His course was between the tracks of the ferryboat and the transfer steamer W. T. Hart, which was considered especially dangerous. Lounsberry was heartily cheered when he finished his remarkable feat and won the wager.—New York Sun.

Christian Church.

There was a large audience present at the Christian church on Sunday night. Reverend Pike, of Barnesville, delivered an able sermon. Revival services will be held all of the present week. You have a cordial invitation to be present.

Postponed.

The case of S. J. Fanik vs. Ab Waggle, to have been heard today by Squire Hill, has been postponed for one week.

Transferred Today.

The transfer of the Hotel Grand property to the Citizens' National bank was completed this afternoon.

New Pole.

The electric light company's employees are today putting in a new pole in Fifth street.

Very Ill.

Miss Allie Davidson is confined to her home with an attack of typhoid pneumonia.

Bright and spicy—the News Review

THE S. G. HARD CO. THE BIG STORE.

CASH OR CREDIT.

In Past Years

it has been our ambition to give East Liverpool a Carpet Store worthy of her.

But big as our Storeroom was, we couldn't do so until we got the addition, which more than doubled its size.

Now we have the space and the stock which makes The Big Store's

—CARPET DEPARTMENT—

the largest between Pittsburgh and Columbus.

Indeed, we doubt whether Pittsburgh shows as great a variety, for in addition to the

More Than One Thousand Rolls
we carry in stock, we show the entire lines of two

LARGEST CARPET HOUSES IN THE UNITED STATES

by Sample.

So with our tremendous stock and efficient help we mean to make our Carpet Department what our Furniture Department has been for years, viz:

The PRIDE OF THE VALLEY.

We especially call attention to the superior manner in which we make and lay Carpets.

IN YARD WIDE CARPETS our stock of INGRAIN, RAG, HEMP, YARD WIDE Brussels, THREE PILS and BOGARIAS, is limitless in variety, style, and price.

BRUSSEL CARPETS in AXMINSTER, VELVET, BODY and TAPESTRY are even more largely represented than Ingrains.

BOGARIA

is a new thing in carpets and combine the beautiful colors and patterns of Body Brussels, the soft effect of Velvets and the cheapness of Ingrain.

These carpets at 90c per yard are certain to become very popular.

For as we want our patrons to see all the variety possible, we show hundreds of different designs in all the latest combination of colors.

And while we point with pride to big variety we also point with pride to

OUR LITTLE PRICES.

Here you will also find Oilcloths, all widths and prices, 20c up.

—LINOLEUMS—

in enormous variety. We are the only house carrying a full assortment of 12 foot wide goods

Window Shades

All Colors, Lengths and Widths in Stock.

Straw Matting

Popular, Clean and Cool. 500 rolls to select from. From 11c a yard upward.

Coco Matting

3-4, 4-4, 5-4 & 6-4 wide, always in stock

Lace Curtains

If you cannot find what you want here, no use to look further

RUGS, ART SQUARES, DRUGGETS.

A full line of all sizes and varieties from 16x28 inches to 10x15 feet, in stock.

You won't do your duty to yourself if you miss seeing the

—Carpet Department AT THE BIG STORE

MRS. JANE BOYCE DEAD

Passed Suddenly Away This Morning.

SHE WAS AS WELL AS USUAL

Until After 10 O'clock When She Complained of Pains In Her Chest, and Before a Physician Could Be Called the End Had Come.

Mrs. Jane Harker Boyce, wife of Hon. David Boyce, president of the First National bank, died suddenly at her home, Jackson and Second streets, this morning.

Mrs. Boyce has not been ill, although she complained last week of a pain in her chest. This morning she was as well as usual, and was preparing dinner. The servant was in the basement laundry when she heard a tapping on the floor. Going upstairs she found Mrs. Boyce lying on a couch and suffering great pain. She said her chest hurt her, but did not want a physician summoned. When she did not show signs of improvement the servant became alarmed, and ran to call Mrs. Harker and Mrs. H. L. Simms. When Mrs. Simms reached the house she saw that Mrs. Boyce was dangerously ill, and telephoned for a physician. She then knelt by the lady and put her arm about her, the end coming in a few minutes afterward. Death was due to heart disease.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made, but interment will be made in Riverview.

Mrs. Boyce was born in Staffordshire 71 years ago, and came to this country with her father in 1839, having resided since that time in this place. She was married to David Boyce in 1853. Mrs. Bessie Pittinger, Miss Kate Harker and Miss Agnes Harker are half sisters, and Thomas Harker is a half brother. There are a number of other relatives in the city.

Mrs. Boyce was widely known in the city as Aunt Jane, and was universally esteemed and beloved. She was a conscientious Christian, being a member of the First Presbyterian church. Charitable and kind to the poor, she performed many acts of kindness, of which no one but herself and the people she befriended knew, and they have sustained a severe loss in her death.

Had she lived until next Thursday she would have been 71 years of age, and tomorrow is the forty-fifth anniversary of her wedding.

There are few men in the city better known than Mr. Boyce, and he has the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

NO ANSWERS

To the Letters Asking About Road Improvements.

Clerk Hanley has not yet received answers to the communications sent out in search of information regarding the construction of good roads. Until some information can be obtained the committee appointed by council can do nothing.

Narrow Escape.

This morning there came near being a serious accident at the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery.

The force were at work drawing a biscuit kiln when a bung broke, causing two rings of saggers to fall. The employes were able to get out of the kiln before the saggers dropped or someone would have been seriously injured.

Fumigated a House.

Sanitary Officer Burgess yesterday fumigated the house of Frank Hoag, of Lincoln avenue, and today will fumigate the home of John Larcombe, Minerva street, the scarlet fever patients having entirely recovered.

The case in the West End is rapidly recovering and it is thought will soon be out of danger.

In a New Position.

Will Fleming, of Washington street, who has occupied the position of yard brakeman at the Wellsville shops, will leave Wednesday for Buffalo, where he has secured a position in the yards of the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad. He has many friends in the city who will wish him success.

To Meet Local Players.

C. L. Kennedy, the well known checker player of Minerva, is visiting friends in the city, and a tournament will be held this evening, where he will meet the best local checker players.

Resumed Operations.

The ferryboat Dispatch resumed operations this afternoon after being tied in for several months.

KEEPING IT VERY QUIET

An Attempt at Suicide Yesterday.

VICTIM TOOK SOME POISON

But a Physician Was Called In Time to Save His Life, and, Upon Being Pledged to Secrecy, Refuses to Say a Word. Much Mystery.

Some one of East Liverpool's residents attempted suicide yesterday, but the physician who was called to save his life will not say a word about it.

The matter is being kept very quiet, but the doctor acknowledged to the NEWS REVIEW that he had been called to attend a case of that kind. Poison had been used, but the attempt was discovered in time to prevent serious results. The patient has not yet recovered entirely, but is out of danger. No serious results are anticipated.

The mystery surrounding the matter prompts the belief that there are unusual circumstances which would doubtless make an interesting story if given to the public.

On the River.

The river has risen since Saturday and the marks at the wharf this morning showed 20.6 feet and stationary.

All the Sunday boats, Ben Hur, Kanawha and Keystone State, passed up on time yesterday, and all had good passenger lists and large cargoes.

The Ben Hur and Keystone State will be down this evening.

Considerable coal is being sent south on the present rise. Among the boats that have passed this port on their way south since Saturday evening are: Coal City, Tom Dodsworth, J. C. Risher, John W. Ailes, Raymond Horner, Fallie, Tom Reese No. 2, Mariner, Fred Wilson, Sam Brown, Sam Clark, Hunter No. 2, Dick Fulton, W. G. Horner, Dave Wood, Volunteer, light.

Passed up—Courier, John Moren, James Moren.

Business at this port good.

Crossed the Hudson on Floating Ice.

Mark Lounsberry, Jr., an employee of the Newburg ferry, accomplished a perilous feat the other morning on a wager in crossing the Hudson river from Fishkill Landing to Newburg on the ice, which consisted largely of floating cakes. Lounsberry left the Fishkill long wharf at 10 o'clock, reaching Newburg after walking three-quarters of an hour on the ice, stepping from cake to cake. His course was between the tracks of the ferryboat and the transfer steamer W. T. Hart, which was considered especially dangerous. Lounsberry was heartily cheered when he finished his remarkable feat and won the wager.—New York Sun.

Christian Church.

There was a large audience present at the Christian church on Sunday night. Reverend Pike, of Barnesville, delivered an able sermon. Revival services will be held all of the present week. You have a cordial invitation to be present.

Postponed.

The case of S. J. Faulk vs. Ab Waggle, to have been heard today by Squire Hill, has been postponed for one week.

Transferred Today.

The transfer of the Hotel Grand property to the Citizens' National bank was completed this afternoon.

New Pole.

The electric light company's employes are today putting in a new pole in Fifth street.

Very Ill.

Miss Allie Davidson is confined to her home with an attack of typhoid pneumonia.

Bright and spicy—the NEWS REVIEW

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE.

CASH OR CREDIT.

In Past Years

it has been our ambition to give East Liverpool a Carpet Store worthy of her.

But big as our Storeroom was, we couldn't do so until we got the addition, which more than doubled its size.

Now we have the space and the stock which makes The Big Store's

—CARPET DEPARTMENT—

the largest between Pittsburg and Columbus.

Indeed, we doubt whether Pittsburg shows as great a variety, for in addition to the

More Than One Thousand Rolls we carry in stock, we show the entire lines of two

LARGEST CARPET HOUSES IN THE UNITED STATES

by Sample.

So with our tremendous stock and efficient help we mean to make our Carpet Department what our Furniture Department has been for years, viz:

The PRIDE OF THE VALLEY.

We especially call attention to the superior manner in which we make and lay Carpets.

IN YARD WIDE CARPETS our stock of INGRAIN, RAG, HEMP, YARD WIDE Brussels, THREE PLYS and BOGARIAS, is limitless in variety, style, and price.

BRUSSELS CARPETS in AXMINSTER, VELVET, BODY and TAPESTRY are even more largely represented than Ingrains.

BOGARIA

is a new thing in carpets and combine the beautiful colors and patterns of Body Brussels, the soft effect of Velvets and the cheapness of Ingrain.

These carpets at 90c per yard are certain to become very popular.

For as we want our patrons to see all the variety possible, we show hundreds of different designs in all the latest combination of colors.

And while we point with pride to big variety we also point with pride to

OUR LITTLE PRICES.

Here you will also find Oilcloths, all widths and prices, 20c up.

—LINOLEUMS—

in enormous variety. We are the only house carrying a full assortment of 12 foot wide goods

Window Shades

All Colors, Lengths and Widths in Stock.

Straw Matting

Popular, Clean and Cool. 500 rolls to select from. From 11c a yard upward.

Coco Matting

3-4, 4-4, 5-4 & 6-4 wide, always in stock

Lace Curtains

If you cannot find what you want here, no use to look further

RUGS,

ART SQUARES, DRUGGETS.

A full line of all sizes and varieties from 16x28 inches to 10x15 feet, in stock.

You won't do your duty to yourself if you miss seeing the

—Carpet Department

AT THE BIG STORE

IT LOOKS BETTER NOW

Trenton Thinks Kindly of the Proposed Trust.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE IN PROGRESS

The Last Report of the Rumored Combination Says That Options Are Being Taken, and the Interested Parties Are In Earnest.

The last report concerning the story that a company of wealthy capitalists were about to buy up all the general ware potteries in the country and operate them under one head, was sent from Trenton to a trade paper. It is interesting chiefly because the matter is not viewed as it is in this city. The paper says:

"The talk of a syndicate operating to secure control of the general ware potteries of the country continues, and the prospect of the scheme being carried into effect is looking brighter. Options have been received on most of the potteries throughout the country, including all but two or three of those in this city. The two principal potteries in this city upon which options have not been received are the Maddock and Cook potteries. A New Yorker named Dibble is carrying on the negotiations on behalf of the syndicate, which is reported to have unlimited cash."

"I feel confident," said a well-known manufacturer, "that if a trust is formed it will be an eastern trust. Liverpool potteries will not be in it. I would bet ten to one on that proposition any day."

IN THE CHURCHES.

Sermons Delivered to Large Congregations Yesterday.

Services in the churches of the city were well attended yesterday.

Methodist Protestant.

The pastor, Reverend Swift, delivered two strongly practical sermons on Sunday, having large audiences morning and evening, taking as his topic for both occasions, Hebrews 11 and 7. "By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house." The speaker dwelt extensively on the thought of the fact that the world at large does not recognize the existence of a real, personal God, able and willing to help his followers in every hour of need and sorrow, even on this earth; a practical friend, worth more than all other friends combined.

The reverend gentleman dwelt on the idea of the sensible man and woman becoming acquainted with God—of a knowledge of the divine being, of his wonderful power, mercy and love, and of following this knowledge up with infinite faith in the giver of all good gifts, and action in accordance with this combination of knowledge and faith:

of man doing his duty and leaving the results with the Master. God talked to Noah and gave him the command to build the ark. Noah had knowledge of God and had full faith in him, and he obeyed the command unhesitatingly, despite the jeers and sneers and ridicule of the multitude, and Noah had his great reward. Don't you hesitate in the line of duty, you followers of Christ. Your pathway is marked out; you know what the Master commands: it is yours to obey and act and God will give the harvest in due time.

There were a number of conversions last night.

Meetings will be held every night of this week, with the exception of Saturday.

In the Churches.

Doctor Lee occupied the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church yesterday. Large congregations attended the services. Miss Florence Everson sang a solo at the evening service.

Doctor Taggart preached at the First U. P. church yesterday and at Chester chapel in the afternoon.

The meeting at the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon was very largely attended, and stirring addresses were made by Secretary Sully and Reverend Swift.

An unusually large congregation was present at St. Stephen's church last night. Reverend Weary delivered an excellent address.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the Free Methodist church on Wednesday evening.

Revival services at the Second M. E. church continue to attract much attention in East End. The attendance yesterday was very large, and Reverend Salmon delivered splendid sermons. The number of converts was increased by five.

Quarterly conference will be conducted at the Second M. E. church, Friday evening by Presiding Elder Jackson. He will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and the sacrament will be administered.

SANGUILLY GONE TO CUBA.

Reported He Heads a Filibustering Expedition—Pledge Broken.

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 14.—Almost under the nose of Edward Gaylor, superintendent of Pinkerton's Spanish spies, a large Cuban expedition left Tampa and has sailed from a point on Pease river.

The men, about 70 in number, walked through the streets of Tampa about 2 o'clock in the morning and boarded a special train which quickly bore them to a point where they were to embark, and there they remained in hiding until a tug took them out to a steamer which bore them away to Cuba. Colonel Emilio Nunez was in charge of the steamer. It is said General Sanguilly is the real commander. It is understood that 5,000 rifles, 600 pounds of dynamite, 200,000 rounds of cartridges and a large lot of supplies made up the cargo.

General Sanguilly was released from prison in Havana, being an American citizen, on giving a pledge to Secretary Sherman that he would not again fight against Spain.

A SUCCESSOR TO DE LOME.

The Spanish Minister to Mexico May Be Sent to Washington.

MADRID, Feb. 14.—The cabinet discussed today the choice of a successor to Senor Dupuy De Lome at Washington.

The candidacy of Senor Polo-Bernabe appears to be abandoned.

Several members of the cabinet favor the nomination of the Duke of Arcos, Spanish minister to Mexico, because he could take charge of the Spanish legation at Washington this week.

Officer Lost From Cushing.

HAVANA, Feb. 14.—Ensign J. H. Breckinridge of the Cushing was washed overboard and drowned a few hours before the arrival of the vessel in this port. The body was recovered.

THE CORONER INVESTIGATING.

Seven More Bodies Recovered From the Ruins at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 14.—The disastrous fire and the causes leading to the death of 18 men is today being investigated by Coroner Heber McDowell and a selected jury of six men.

The names of these last victims are:

Prof. James Moxon, organist English Lutheran church, Brushton, 32 years old leaves a wife and child.

D. B. Wickerly, stairbuilder, 28 years old of Brushton. Left a wife and three children.

George E. Neuman of Brushton, gas inspector for the Philadelphia company.

William Doran, employed as a wagon-man by the Adams Express company. Left a widowed mother at 1611 Webster avenue.

John Castine, pork packer, single, 51 years old; 116 Pike street.

Dennis A. Geary, clerk, employed by the Adams Express company. He was 24 years old and lived at 1310 Ann street.

William A. Finch, 30 years old, single, of 2109 Carey alley.

TAX COLLECTOR CLAPPER KILLED.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—Adolphus Clapper, tax collector at Franks-ton, this county, and one of the most prominent citizens of this section, met a sad fate while driving home from a collecting tour. He, it is thought, drove his horse in the darkness over the side of a bridge crossing the Juniata river. Citizens found his lifeless remains in the river. There is some suspicion of foul play.

SHOT A POLICEMAN.

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—A man, who afterward gave his name as Peter Nielson, 23 years old, of St. Paul, was acting suspiciously on the street and was accosted by Policeman Walter G. Horton, who asked him his business. Without warning, Nielson drew a pistol and fired at the policeman, shooting him in the back. Horton, who is not dangerously hurt, arrested Nielson.

NEW MANAGER FOR CHICAGO CLUB.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—The contract by which Thomas Burns is to become manager of the Chicago ball team for next season has been signed and Burns is now the full fledged manager of the team.

KILLED HIS PARTNER AND HIMSELF.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 14.—H. C. Bolton has been shot and killed by Andrew Annen, who afterward killed himself. The two men were partners in a livery stable and had a disagreement.

KILLED BY A TROLLEY CAR.

TRENTON, Feb. 14.—Seven-year-old Annie Shipska has been killed by a trolley car. Motorman Preston and Conductor Trainer were arrested and released under $500 bail each.

Fire Near Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Chicago Portland Cement company at Hawthorne. The loss amounts to $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

THE WEATHER.

Probably light rain, clearing in the afternoon; fresh to brisk southerly winds, becoming northwesterly.

PROMINENT AUSTRIAN DEAD.

BRUNN, Feb. 14.—Count Gustav Siegmund Kalnoky de Koros-Patak, former Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, has died here.

Quarterly conference will be con-

WOODWARD DEFENDED.

Rumor of Censure Denied at the White House.

CRITICISM "AT THIS TIME" UNFAIR

All Information Regarding the Last Dispatch From the Minister Is Withheld. Day Says This Does Not Indicate Anything Serious.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The 300-word cipher dispatch received from Minister Woodford Saturday night has been translated at the state department, but no intimation of its import could be secured from official sources. Assistant Secretary of State Day, who has been entrusted with the whole correspondence by the president, refused to discuss the message. He said merely that there was no development in the case which properly could be made public at this time. In one instance he supplemented this statement by the remark that the mere fact of information being withheld was not to be taken as a serious indication. Secretary Day dined at the White House, Mrs. Day still being out of town.

The president would make no statement.

It was stated at the White House, however, that there was no truth in the rumor of a censure upon Minister Woodford for allowing Dupuy De Lome to forestall him in presenting the application for the minister's recall. Minister Woodford's course, it was stated, had been entirely satisfactory and any criticism at this time was unfounded and unfair.

It could not be ascertained positively whether or not an answer to Minister Woodford's last dispatch has been sent. It is almost certain, however, that a reply has been drafted.

The Duke d'Arcos, mentioned in Madrid dispatches as a possible successor to Dupuy De Lome, has been the guest of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Mackey-Smith of this city during the past week. With him is the Duchess d'Arcos, formerly Miss Virginia Lowery of Washington. The duke was ambassador to Mexico and is stopping in Washington enroute to Spain.

CLERK BETRAYED DE LOME.

He Saw the Letter and Cubans Had It Intercepted.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—The Press prints today what it asserts to be the true version of the acquisition and publication of the letter from Mr. De Lome to Senor Canalejas. The authority cited for its authenticity is "a Cuban of the highest standing in the councils of his party," who receives his information "from headquarters in New York."

De Lome wrote the letter in his private residence in Washington, instead of at the Spanish legation. The paper, however, was marked with the official type and read in the corner "legation de Espana." The same inscription was upon the left hand upper corner of the envelope.

Senor De Lome carried it to the legation to finish it. The letter lay upon the desk of the minister in his inner office, the outer office being his place of reception to visitors. During an absence of half an hour from the inner office of De Lome a clerk saw the open letter and read some of it.

The next day this same person sent word to his Cuban associates in Washington. Word was sent to New York.

Immediately words of warning and urgings to be on the alert were sent to every Cuban who might be in a position to obtain track of or intercept the much sought-for missive.

The letter reached Havana five days after its postmark in Washington. An agent of the Cuban party, who is an employee of the Spanish postoffice, knew that the letter was on the way, and when it came into his hands it was carried from the postoffice and a copy was made of it. Word to this effect was sent to the Cuban leader in Jacksonville, Fla., who at once asked the secret Cuban junta in Havana to secure the original letter—that a copy was not what was desired.

The Havana postoffice clerk was not willing to do this at first, but afterward consented, as he was obliged to account for a certain number of letters to other employees of the department. The original was then taken, several blank sheets were substituted in place of the paper upon which De Lome had written, and the letter finally postmarked in the Havana office and sent in its routine way.

Eight days from its arrival in the Havana office, the sealed envelope, properly addressed to Senor Canalejas, was delivered at the Hotel Inglaterra. Senor Canalejas did not regard the matter seriously at the time, although the hotel boy who brought him the letter and the postoffice employee who had last charge of it were arrested. So also was the hotel employee who went several times daily to the postoffice for the mails. All three were discharged after an examination.

Senor Canalejas communicated almost immediately with Minister De Lome and for several weeks letters and cablegrams passed between the two, but no trace of the letter could be obtained. Canalejas shortly thereafter left Havana, going to Madrid.

HAS FAITH IN M'KINLEY.

Spanish Minister Moret Says He Is Strong For Peace.

MADRID, Feb. 14.—A correspondent obtained interviews with Senor Gullon, the foreign minister, and Senor Moret, minister for the colonies. Senor Gullon said the Dupuy De Lome letter incident was regarded, both at Madrid and Washington, as absolutely ended from the moment when Assistant Secretary Day conferred with Senor DuBosc.

Senor Moret said: "Although there exists in the United States a party eager for war and which strives to provoke a conflict, President McKinley will try to avoid one, and the Spanish government also will do its utmost to avoid any fresh friction which would make the relations between the two countries more strained."

MR. GLADSTONE BENEFITED.

CANNES, Feb. 14.—Henry Gladstone says his father and the whole family intend to start about the end of this week for a south of England watering place. Mr. Gladstone's physician thinks his parent has attained the utmost benefit from his stay on the Riviera.

STOPPED BOXING IN ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 14.—Acting President Lewis of the board of police commissioners has issued a fiat to Chief of Police Harrigan stating that public sparring or boxing exhibitions are a violation of the laws of Missouri.

3-SHEET POSTER.

IT LOOKS BETTER NOW

Trenton Thinks Kindly of the Proposed Trust.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE IN PROGRESS

The Last Report of the Rumored Combination Says That Options Are Being Taken, and the Interested Parties Are In Earnest.

The last report concerning the story that a company of wealthy capitalists were about to buy up all the general ware potteries in the country and operate them under one head, was sent from Trenton to a trade paper. It is interesting chiefly because the matter is not viewed as it is in this city. The paper says:

"The talk of a syndicate operating to secure control of the general ware potteries of the country continues, and the prospect of the scheme being carried into effect is looking brighter. Options have been received on most of the potteries throughout the country, including all but two or three of those in this city. The two principal potteries in this city upon which options have not been received are the Maddock and Cook potteries. A New Yorker named Dibble is carrying on the negotiations on behalf of the syndicate, which is reported to have unlimited cash."

"I feel confident," said a well-known manufacturer, "that if a trust is formed it will be an eastern trust. Liverpool potteries will not be in it. I would bet ten to one on that proposition any day."

IN THE CHURCHES.

Sermons Delivered to Large Congregations Yesterday.

Services in the churches of the city were well attended yesterday.

Methodist Protestant.

The pastor, Reverend Swift, delivered two strongly practical sermons on Sunday, having large audiences morning and evening, taking as his topic for both occasions, Hebrews 11 and 7. "By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house." The speaker dwelt extensively on the thought of the fact that the world at large does not recognize the existence of a real, personal God, able and willing to help his followers in every hour of need and sorrow, even on this earth.

George E. Neuman of Brushton, gas inspector for the Philadelphia company. William Doran, employed as a wagonman by the Adams Express company. Left a widowed mother at 1611 Webster avenue.

John Castine, pork packer, single, 51 years old; 116 Pike street.

Dennis A. Geary, clerk, employed by the Adams Express company. He was 24 years old and lived at 1310 Ann street.

William A. Finch, 30 years old, single, of 2109 Carey alley.

ducted at the Second M. E. church, Friday evening by Presiding Elder Jackson. He will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and the sacrament will be administered.

SANGUILLI GONE TO CUBA.

Reported He Heads a Filibustering Expedition—Pledge Broken.

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 14.—Almost under the nose of Edward Gaylor, superintendent of Pinkerton's Spanish spies, a large Cuban expedition left Tampa and has sailed from a point on Pease river.

The men, about 70 in number, walked through the streets of Tampa about 2 o'clock in the morning and boarded a special train which quickly bore them to a point where they were to embark, and there they remained in hiding until a tug took them out to a steamer which bore them away to Cuba. Colonel Emilio Nunez was in charge of the steamer. It is said General Sanguilli is the real commander. It is understood that 5,000 rifles, 600 pounds of dynamite, 200,000 rounds of cartridges and a large lot of supplies made up the cargo.

General Sanguilli was released from prison in Havana, being an American citizen, on giving a pledge to Secretary Sherman that he would not again fight against Spain.

A SUCCESSOR TO DE LOME.

The Spanish Minister to Mexico May Be Sent to Washington.

MADRID, Feb. 14.—The cabinet discussed today the choice of a successor to Senor Dupuy De Lome at Washington.

The candidacy of Senor Polo-Bernabe appears to be abandoned.

Several members of the cabinet favor the nomination of the Duke of Arcos, Spanish minister to Mexico, because he could take charge of the Spanish legation at Washington this week.

Officer Lost From Cushing.

HAVANA, Feb. 14.—Ensign J. H. Breckinridge of the Cushing was washed overboard and drowned a few hours before the arrival of the vessel in this port. The body was recovered.

THE CORONER INVESTIGATING.

Seven More Bodies Recovered From the Ruins at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 14.—The disastrous fire and the causes leading to the death of 18 men is today being investigated by Coroner Heber McDowell and a selected jury of six men.

The names of these last victims are:

Prof. James Moxon, organist English Lutheran church, Brushton, 32 years old leaves a wife and child.

D. B. Wickerly, stonemason, 28 years old of Brushton. Left a wife and three children.

George E. Neuman of Brushton, gas inspector for the Philadelphia company.

William Doran, employed as a wagonman by the Adams Express company. Left a widowed mother at 1611 Webster avenue.

John Castine, pork packer, single, 51 years old; 116 Pike street.

Dennis A. Geary, clerk, employed by the Adams Express company. He was 24 years old and lived at 1310 Ann street.

William A. Finch, 30 years old, single, of 2109 Carey alley.

Tax Collector Clapper Killed.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—Adolphus Clapper, tax collector at Frankstown, this county, and one of the most prominent citizens of this section, met a sad fate while driving home from a collecting tour. He, it is thought, drove his horse in the darkness over the side of a bridge crossing the Juniata river. Citizens found his lifeless remains in the river. There is some suspicion of foul play.

Shot a Policeman.

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—A man, who afterward gave his name as Peter Nielson, 23 years old, of St. Paul, was acting suspiciously on the street and was accosted by Policeman Walter G. Horton, who asked him his business. Without warning, Nielson drew a pistol and fired at the policeman, shooting him in the back. Horton, who is not dangerous, was hurt, arrested Nielson.

New Manager For Chicago Club.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—The contract by which Thomas Burns is to become manager of the Chicago ball team for next season has been signed and Burns is now the full fledged manager of the team.

Killed His Partner and Himself.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 14.—H. C. Bolton has been shot and killed by Andrew Annen, who afterward killed himself. The two men were partners in a livery stable and had a disagreement.

Killed by a Trolley Car.

TRENTON, Feb. 14.—Seven-year-old Annie Shipska has been killed by a trolley car. Motorman Preston and Conductor Trainer were arrested and released under $500 bail each.

Fire Near Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Chicago Portland Cement company at Hawthorne. The loss amounts to $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

The Weather.

Probably light rain, clearing in the afternoon; fresh to brisk southerly winds, becoming northwesterly.

Prominent Austrian Dead.

BRUNN, Feb. 14.—Count Gustav Siegmund Kalmoky de Koros-Patak, former Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, has died here.

Revival services at the Second M. E. church continue to attract much attention in East End. The attendance yesterday was very large, and Reverend Salmon delivered splendid sermons. The number of converts was increased by five.

Quarterly conference will be con-

WOODWARD DEFENDED.

Rumor of Censure Denied at the White House.

CRITICISM "AT THIS TIME" UNFAIR

All Information Regarding the Last Dispatch From the Minister Is Withheld. Day Says This Does Not Indicate Anything Serious.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The 300-word cipher dispatch received from Minister Woodford Saturday night has been translated at the state department, but no intimation of its import could be secured from official sources. Assistant Secretary of State Day, who has been entrusted with the whole correspondence by the president, refused to discuss the message. He said merely that there was no development in the case which properly could be made public at this time. In one instance he supplemented this statement by the remark that the mere fact of information being withheld was not to be taken as a serious indication. Secretary Day dined at the White House, Mrs. Day still being out of town.

The president would make no statement.

It was stated at the White House, however, that there was no truth in the rumor of a censure upon Minister Woodford for allowing Dupuy De Lome to forestall him in presenting the application for the minister's recall. Minister Woodford's course, it was stated, had been entirely satisfactory and any criticism at this time was unfounded and unfair.

It could not be ascertained positively whether or not an answer to Minister Woodford's last dispatch has been sent. It is almost certain, however, that a reply has been drafted.

The Duke d'Arcos, mentioned in Madrid dispatches as a possible successor to Dupuy De Lome, has been the guest of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Mackey-Smith of this city during the past week. With him is the Duchess d'Arcos, formerly Miss Virginia Lowery of Washington. The duke was ambassador to Mexico and is stopping in Washington enroute to Spain.

CLERK BETRAYED DE LOME.

He Saw the Letter and Cubans Had It Intercepted.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—The Press prints today what it asserts to be the true version of the acquisition and publication of the letter from Mr. De Lome to Senor Canalejas. The authority cited for its authenticity is "a Cuban of the highest standing in the councils of his party," who receives his information "from headquarters in New York."

De Lome wrote the letter in his private residence in Washington, instead of at the Spanish legation. The paper, however, was marked with the official type and read in the corner "legation de Espana." The same inscription was upon the left hand upper corner of the envelope.

Senor De Lome carried it to the legation to finish it. The letter lay upon the desk of the minister in his inner office, the outer office being his place of reception to visitors. During an absence of half an hour from the inner office of De Lome a clerk saw the open letter and read some of it.

The next day this same person sent word to his Cuban associates in Washington. Word was sent to New York.

Immediately words of warning and urging to be on the alert were sent to every Cuban who might be in a position to obtain track of or intercept the much sought-for missive.

The letter reached Havana five days after its postmark in Washington. An agent of the Cuban party, who is an employee of the Spanish postoffice, knew that the letter was on the way, and when it came into his hands it was carried from the postoffice and a copy was made of it. Word to this effect was sent to the Cuban leader in Jacksonville, Fla., who at once asked the secret Cuban junta in Havana to secure the original letter—that a copy was not what was desired.

The Havana postoffice clerk was not willing to do this at first, but afterward consented, as he was obliged to account for a certain number of letters to other employees of the department. The original was then taken, several blank sheets were substituted in place of the paper upon which De Lome had written, and the letter finally postmarked in the Havana office and sent in its routine way.

Eight days from its arrival in the Havana office, the sealed envelope, properly addressed to Senor Canalejas, was delivered at the Hotel Inglaterra. Senor Canalejas did not regard the matter seriously at the time, although the hotel boy who brought him the letter and the postoffice employee who had last charge of it were arrested. So also was the hotel employee who went several times daily to the postoffice for the mail. All three were discharged after an examination.

Senor Canalejas communicated almost immediately with Minister De Lome and for several weeks letters and cablegrams passed between the two, but no trace of the letter could be obtained. Canalejas shortly thereafter left Havana, going to Madrid.

HAS FAITH IN M'KINLEY.

Spanish Minister Moret Says He Is Strong For Peace.

MADRID, Feb. 14.—A correspondent obtained interviews with Senor Gullon, the foreign minister, and Senor Moret, minister for the colonies. Senor Gullon said the Dupuy De Lome letter incident was regarded, both at Madrid and Washington, as absolutely ended from the moment when Assistant Secretary Day conferred with Senor DuBose.

Senor Moret said: "Although there exists in the United States a party eager for war and which strives to provoke a conflict, President McKinley will try to avoid one, and the Spanish government also will do its utmost to avoid any fresh friction which would make the relations between the two countries more strained."

Mr. Gladstone Benefited.

CANNES, Feb. 14.—Henry Gladstone says his father and the whole family intend to start about the end of this week for a south of England watering place. Mr. Gladstone's physician thinks his parent has attained the utmost benefit from his stay on the Riviera.

Stopped Boxing In St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 14.—Acting President Lewis of the board of police commissioners has issued a flat to Chief of Police Harrigan stating that public sparring or boxing exhibitions are a violation of the laws of Missouri.

3-Sheet Poster.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop

IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE

COLOR PRINTING,
ART CATALOGUES,
EMBOSSING,
HALF TONE WORK
IM. LITHOGRAPHY
IM. TYPE WRITER,
&c., &c., &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES CARDS,
LETTER HEADS,
INVOICE SHEETS,
INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS,
BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages,
Fine Equipment,
Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

FOR RENT.

FOR SALE.

FOR RENT.

TO A FEDERAL COURT

The Bridge Litigation Finally Finds Its Way.

SCHRADER ASKS AN INJUNCTION

Restraining Receiver Owens From Applying the Money He Collects to the Payment of the First National's Claim—There Are Other Defendants.

The troubles of the East Liverpool Bridge company, John Shrader, Geo. H. Owens and the other parties interested in that matter are by no means over. After a few days of peace and quiet grim visaged war has appeared again, this time at the instigation of Mr. Shrader who has taken the case into the United States circuit court for the Northern district of Ohio.

When the early train came from Cleveland yesterday morning it brought John J. Keeley, deputy marshal. Mr.

Keeley had been here before, but he consumed some time locating the men he desired to interview, although the day was yet young when he pulled the bell at the residence of Geo. H. Owen in Fourth street and announced that he desired to see that gentleman at once. Mr. Owen hastily dressed, and approaching the deputy was informed without further ceremony that the papers the official held in his hand notified him that action had been commenced by Mr. Shrader. The deputy also notified Hon. David Boyce, president of the First National bank, and a deputy called on the Union Trust company in Pittsburgh today.

The suit is against Geo. H. Owen, receiver, the bank and the trust company, and asks an order restraining the receiver from applying any tolls collected from the bridge to the payment of any claims of the bank. It also orders and directs Mr. Owen as receiver to retain, subject to the order of the court, all tolls collected by him after the service of the notice. The receiver and the proper officials of the bank are ordered to appear before the court February 16 in Cleveland, and show cause why a temporary injunction, should not be issued enjoining them from prosecuting the action of the bank against the lands, tolls and property covered by the mortgage deeds of the bridge company to the Union Trust company, and from further proceedings in the collection of the tolls upon the bridge, or in the interference in any manner with the possession, management or control of the part of the bridge covered by the mortgage.

The application for the injunction will be heard Wednesday at 10 o'clock by Judge Ricks in Cleveland, and the papers in the suit are made returnable the first Monday of March. Deputy Keeley returned to Cleveland on the midnight train.

HOW IT IS DONE IN TURKEY.

Sentence the Criminal and Then Try to Find Him.

A cycling journal this week says: "When Frank Lenz, the American bicycle tourist, was murdered in Turkey, the Sultan promised that he would see to the punishment of the villains. Then he forgot all about it, until reminded by the American minister. This going to sleep and being prodded up continued for several years, and now it is announced that the murderers have been sentenced to fifteen years imprisonment. Before we had time to congratulate ourselves that justice had been done at last, the additional news comes that the murderers were not under custody at the time of the trial, and sentence was passed in their absence. In this country we catch the criminal before we try him, but in Turkey the process can be reversed. In this case the punishment is not likely to fall very heavily on the criminals, since no effort is being made to apprehend them."

Women Notaries.

The bill to allow women over 21 years of age to be appointed notaries public is half a law. It has passed the house without serious opposition. It was introduced early in the session by Mr. Bartlow, of Butler, and after a full hearing before the judiciary committee, was recommended for passage.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Charles Ball took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock and was largely attended. Interment was at Spring Grove.

The remains of Meylon Purpura were laid to rest in Spring Grove yesterday morning.

Increased the Work.

The force at the postoffice had an abundance of work today, the practice of sending valentines seemingly being as popular as ever. The carriers had all they could do, and a large number of letters were handled. The bulk of the mail matter was local.

A LIVERPOOL MAN

Died at the Infirmary After Faithful Service.

LISBON, Feb. 14.—[Special]—Alexander Reed died at the infirmary Saturday afternoon. He had suffered from pneumonia. Deceased was 45 years of age, and was sent there from East Liverpool three years ago. He had become a valuable man, having charge of the sick in the male department, and proved to be an efficient nurse.

Infirmary Director McBride took three children to the Fairmount home. One is colored, and the others are children of Howard Davis, the Liverpool man who is confined in the Lisbon jail for wife beating. Mrs. Davis accompanied them as far as Alliance on her way to her mother's home.

First Assignment.

LISBON, Feb. 14.—[Special]—The following is the assignment for common pleas court next week, Judge Smith presiding:

Monday—Cambridge Chair company vs. E. A. Albright; Lisbon Oil company vs. J. S. Faloon; Laura M. Barth vs. Ambrose Bradshaw; Tuesday, Wm. R. Stevenson vs. Pennsylvania Bridge Co.; Cassius Strakarer vs. Geo. Rice; August Uhlig vs. Salem board of education. Wednesday—Martha A. Blair vs. Godfrey Crawford; James H. Babington vs. Samuel Buel; H. E. Ketcham vs. George S. Ketcham; Jennie L. Lawrence vs. Protected Home circle. Thursday—Catherine Costelow vs. E. D. Marshall; W. H. Riley vs. A. Forster; Sumner Heston vs. Frank Cope; Geo. M. D. Wunderstein vs. Geo. Kock. Friday—Thomas Doutt vs. Mary J. Hutchinson; George J. Cope vs. Edith Cope.

Harry Roberts and William Marshall were brought here from Wellsville this morning. They are charged with larceny.

Marriage licenses were issued to Robert Dickson and Annie Peters, John M. Martin and Elizabeth Cordell.

The will of A. S. Sampson, of Fairfield, was filed for probate.

Letters of administration were granted W. S. Eckstein on the estate of Angelina Eckstein, of Perry.

Emily J. Smith, administratrix, was ordered to sell lots 16 and 61 in Wellsville at private sale and give additional bond of $5,200.

Enjoyed the Evening.

The graphophone entertainment Saturday evening at the Young Men's Christian association was enjoyed by a large audience. Records were taken of a piano solo by Charles Tarr and a vocal solo by George Sinclair, and Secretary Sully read the first Psalm.

Next Saturday evening the gymnasium class will give an exhibition.

At the Freight Depot.

A fair amount of business was handled at the freight depot Saturday, but not more than a dozen cars were sent out.

Business today was rather light. Receipts are fair, but, still an increase over last Monday was visible.

To Settle This Week.

Engineer Newhall and Superintendent Morley held a conference Saturday afternoon, with the result that the plans for the new switch will be submitted this week.

Will Soon Begin.

Work on the Jethro trestle will soon be started. Stone for the piers is now being hauled to the place, and within a few weeks the force will begin. The delay was unavoidable.

A Rush of Freight.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh has been experiencing another rush of freight. It was necessary to run extra trains to handle the business offered.

Spent Sunday Here.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin company, which played at the Grand Saturday night, spent Sunday in the city and left this morning for Cadiz.

Too Drunk to Walk.

Yesterday afternoon a man so drunk he could scarcely walk was seen in Sixth street. He was taken home by friends.

Business of Importance.

Trades council will hold a regular session Wednesday evening. There is business of importance to be transacted.

Valentine masquerade, Monday evening, Feb. 14, at Brant's.

MAY HEED GOMPERS.

A Huge Strike Probable In New England.

147,000 LIKELY TO CEASE WORK.

The Labor Leader Urged a General Strike of All Cotton Operatives to Aid Those Now Out—A Recommendation Followed the Suggestion.

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—At a meeting in this city of 55 representatives of textile unions in New England it was unanimously voted to recommend that all unions call out the operatives in every cotton mill in New England.

The meeting was practically the outcome of the recommendation which President Gompers made to the Federation of Labor a week ago Sunday, in which he urged the different unions to unite on some settled policy regarding the mill situation in New England.

It now remains for the various national unions to take action on the recommendation, but what this action will be is a matter of conjecture. If all should acquiesce and vote to strike, 147,000 operatives would undoubtedly cease work and the manufacture of cotton goods throughout New England would be at a standstill. If, on the other hand, only a few unions should vote to strike, the refusal of the others would still keep a large portion of the mills in operation.

Inasmuch, however, as the meeting was the outcome of President Gompers' suggestions, and as he admonished the members of the Federation of Labor to join hands and assist the New Bedford strikers, it seems probable that nearly every union will carry out the recommendations, and that one of the greatest strikes ever seen in this country is impending.

Many of the French Canadian operatives in places where mills are closed have gone to Canada, and should some of the mills decide to start it is thought it would be difficult to run the departments without engaging new hands.

A new feature in the situation is the appearance of Canadian government colonization agents, who have been sent with a view of having the French Canadians out of work settle on unoccupied lands in the Lake St. John district of Quebec. These agents will begin a tour of the mill towns in Southern New England immediately. The Canadian and Quebec governments have undertaken to aid all settlers.

The existing troubles are causing the idleness of about 17,000 persons in New England.

Meetings Held by Gompers.

OIL CITY, Feb. 14.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, had two meetings in this city. The first was on Saturday, to which members of the various trades unions of the city were alone admitted, and the second was a public meeting, held in the opera house Sunday afternoon. Both meetings were an agitation of the movement to secure an eight-hour day throughout the United States.

LASHED AND PILLORIED.

Five Negroes and Four White Men Whipped In Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 14.—Five negroes and four white men have been lashed and pilloried in the jail yard at New Castle in a cold drizzling rain.

Isaac Hackett, a white man, for forgery, stood one hour in the pillory. John Wright, also white, for larceny, received 20 lashes. George White, colored, convicted of assault with intent to kill, took one hour in the pillory. Robert Murphy, a white man, for larceny, received 15 lashes. Charles Jones, colored, for larceny, also received 15 lashes. Charles Hodge, colored, for larceny, received a like number of lashes.

Ernest Williams, colored, for larceny, received 15 lashes. Thomas Rowen a white man, received ten lashes for larceny. William Spelley, colored, for larceny, took ten lashes.

Vigilance Committee Formed.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 14.—The steamer Utopia, which has arrived from Skagway and Dyea, reports that a vigilance committee is being formed at Skagway with the intention of driving out of town toughs and bunks men. "Holdups" and petty larceny are being daily reported and it is more than probable that lynchings will occur unless the authorities act promptly.

Fire In Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 14.—The large Hoyt building, on the northwest corner of St. Clair and Bank streets, owned by the Hoyt estate and occupied principally by manufacturers of clothing, wholesale hatters and furriers, caught fire Saturday and was practically destroyed with its contents. The loss is estimated at $375,000, pretty well covered by insurance.

Steamer Lost at Sea.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The American line steamer St. Louis, Captain Randle, from Southampton, reports the loss at sea of the Holland-American line steamer Veendam, Captain Stenger, from Rotterdam for New York. The passengers and crew of the Veendam were saved by the St. Louis.

No Action Against Pridgeon.

CANONSBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—No legal proceedings have yet been instituted against Rev. C. H. Pridgeon, Ella McMillan and Mrs. Holliday as was recommended by the coroner's jury in the Mrs. Whiteside case, and it is generally believed the matter will go no further.

To Suit All Eyes.

That's the way we have glasses. There are no two eyes alike. Even your eyes are not alike. That's why you should get your glasses here, because we are so particular. Glasses fitted here, look good, feel good and make you see good. They are good because we sell only good glasses. "Cash or credit."

WADE, The Jeweler.

The First National Bank

Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.

Vice President—J. M. KELLY.

Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.

Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, W. L. THOMPSON, J. M. KELLY, O. C. VODREY, B. C. SIMMS, JNO. C. THOMPSON.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 50,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

CITIZENS' NATIONAL BANK, of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Office Fourth Street,
Near Smith & Phillips Music House.

Capital Stock, $100,000

Discount Days, Monday, Wednesday & Friday.

BUSINESS AND PERSONAL ACCOUNTS Respectfully Solicited.

Bank open: Daily from 9 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m. Saturdays open from 8 to 10 p. m.

ROBERT HALL, President.
JOSEPH G. LEE, Vice President.
HEBER H. BLYTH, Cashier.

Board of Directors:—Robert Hall, Joseph G. Lee, Wm. Erlanger, Dr. W. N. Bailey, Robert Burford, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, John W. Vodrey, A. J. Witzman, John M. Steel.

CLIMAX STOVE POLISH

(World's Best)

Usual price 10c; for this week only..... 6c

Diamond Starch; usual price 10c; this week only... 5c

Everything in the Grocery Line at Reasonable Prices.

FRANK FOOTTS.

Pharmacy

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,
Surgeon Dentist.

Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

DYSPEPSIA, Heartburn, Gastritis, and all Stomach Disorders positively cured. Graham's Dyspepsia Remedy is a specific. One dose removes all distress, and a permanent cure of the most chronic and severe cases is guaranteed. Do not suffer! A 50 cent bottle will convince the most skeptical.

BAIRD & SON, Druggists

East End.

TO A FEDERAL COURT

The Bridge Litigation Finally Finds Its Way.

SHRADER ASKS AN INJUNCTION

Restraining Receiver Owens From Applying the Money He Collects to the Payment of the First National's Claim—There Are Other Defendants.

The troubles of the East Liverpool Bridge company, John Shrader, Geo. H. Owens and the other parties interested in that matter are by no means over. After a few days of peace and quiet grim visaged war has appeared again, this time at the instigation of Mr. Shrader who has taken the case into the United States circuit court for the Northern district of Ohio.

When the early train came from Cleveland yesterday morning it brought John J. Keeley, deputy marshal. Mr. Keeley had been here before, but he consumed some time locating the men he desired to interview, although the day was yet young when he pulled the bell at the residence of Geo. H. Owen in Fourth street and announced that he desired to see that gentleman at once. Mr. Owen hastily dressed, and approaching the deputy was informed without further ceremony that the papers the official held in his hand notified him that action had been commenced by Mr. Shrader. The deputy also notified Hon. David Boyce, president of the First National bank, and a deputy called on the Union Trust company in Pittsburgh today.

The suit is against Geo. H. Owen, receiver, the bank and the trust company, and asks an order restraining the receiver from applying any tolls collected from the bridge to the payment of any claims of the bank. It also orders and directs Mr. Owen as receiver to retain, subject to the order of the court, all tolls collected by him after the service of the notice. The receiver and the proper officials of the bank are ordered to appear before the court February 16 in Cleveland, and show cause why a temporary injunction, should not be issued enjoining them from prosecuting the action of the bank against the lands, tolls and property covered by the mortgage deeds of the bridge company to the Union Trust company, and from further proceedings in the collection of the tolls upon the bridge, or in the interference in any manner with the possession, management or control of the part of the bridge covered by the mortgage.

The application for the injunction will be heard Wednesday at 10 o'clock by Judge Ricks in Cleveland, and the papers in the suit are made returnable the first Monday of March. Deputy Keeley returned to Cleveland on the midnight train.

HOW IT IS DONE IN TURKEY.

Sentence the Criminal and Then Try to Find Him.

A cycling journal this week says: "When Frank Lenz, the American bicycle tourist, was murdered in Turkey, the Sultan promised that he would see to the punishment of the villains. Then he forgot all about it, until reminded by the American minister. This going to sleep and being prodded up continued for several years, and now it is announced that the murderers have been sentenced to fifteen years imprisonment. Before we had time to congratulate ourselves that justice had been done at last, the additional news comes that the murderers were not under custody at the time of the trial, and sentence was passed in their absence. In this country we catch the criminal before we try him, but in Turkey the process can be reversed. In this case the punishment is not likely to fall very heavily on the criminals, since no effort is being made to apprehend them."

Women Notaries.

The bill to allow women over 21 years of age to be appointed notaries public is half a law. It has passed the house without serious opposition. It was introduced early in the session by Mr. Bartlow, of Butler, and after a full hearing before the judiciary committee, was recommended for passage.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Charles Ball took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock and was largely attended. Interment was at Spring Grove.

The remains of Meylon Purpura were laid to rest in Spring Grove yesterday morning.

Increased the Work.

The force at the postoffice had an abundance of work today, the practice of sending valentines seemingly being as popular as ever. The carriers had all they could do, and a large number of letters were handled. The bulk of the mail matter was local.

A LIVERPOOL MAN

Died at the Infirmary After Faithful Service.

LISBON, Feb. 14.—[Special]—Alexander Reed died at the infirmary Saturday afternoon. He had suffered from pneumonia. Deceased was 45 years of age, and was sent there from East Liverpool three years ago. He had become a valuable man, having charge of the sick in the male department, and proved to be an efficient nurse.

Infirmary Director McBride took three children to the Fairmount home. One is colored, and the others are children of Howard Davis, the Liverpool man who is confined in the Lisbon jail for wife beating. Mrs. Davis accompanied them as far as Alliance on her way to her mother's home.

First Assignment.

LISBON, Feb. 14.—[Special]—The following is the assignment for common pleas court next week, Judge Smith presiding:

Monday—Cambridge Chair company vs. E. A. Albright; Lisbon Oil company vs. J. S. Faloon; Laura M. Barth vs. Ambrose Bradshaw; Tuesday, Wm. R. Stevenson vs. Pennsylvania Bridge Co.; Cassius Strakar vs. Geo. Rice; August Uhlig vs. Salem board of education. Wednesday—Martha A. Blair vs. Godfrey Crawford; James H. Babbington vs. Samuel Buel; H. E. Ketcham vs. George S. Ketcham; Jennie L. Lawrence vs. Protected Home circle. Thursday—Catherine Costelow vs. E. D. Marshall; W. H. Riley vs. A. Forster; Sumner Heston vs. Frank Cope; Geo. M. D. Wunderstein vs. Geo. Kock. Friday—Thomas Doutt vs. Mary J. Hutchinson; George J. Cope vs. Edith Cope.

Harry Roberts and William Marshall were brought here from Wellsville this morning. They are charged with larceny.

Marriage licenses were issued to Robert Dickson and Annie Peters, John M. Martin and Elizabeth Cordell.

The will of A. S. Sampson, of Fairfield, was filed for probate.

Letters of administration were granted W. S. Eckstein on the estate of Angelina Eckstein, of Perry.

Emily J. Smith, administratrix, was ordered to sell lots 16 and 61 in Wellsville at private sale and give additional bond of $5,200.

Enjoyed the Evening.

The graphophone entertainment Saturday evening at the Young Men's Christian association was enjoyed by a large audience. Records were taken of a piano solo by Charles Tarr and a vocal solo by George Sinclair, and Secretary Sully read the first Psalm.

Next Saturday evening the gymnasium class will give an exhibition.

At the Freight Depot.

A fair amount of business was handled at the freight depot Saturday, but not more than a dozen cars were sent out.

Business today was rather light. Receipts are fair, but, still an increase over last Monday was visible.

To Settle This Week.

Engineer Newhall and Superintendent Morley held a conference Saturday afternoon, with the result that the plans for the new switch will be submitted this week.

Will Soon Begin.

Work on the Jethro trestle will soon be started. Stone for the piers is now being hauled to the place, and within a few weeks the force will begin. The delay was unavoidable.

A Rush of Freight.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh has been experiencing another rush of freight. It was necessary to run extra trains to handle the business offered.

Spent Sunday Here.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin company, which played at the Grand Saturday night, spent Sunday in the city and left this morning for Cadiz.

Too Drunk to Walk.

Yesterday afternoon a man so drunk he could scarcely walk was seen in Sixth street. He was taken home by friends.

Business of Importance.

Trades council will hold a regular session Wednesday evening. There is business of importance to be transacted.

Valentine masquerade, Monday evening, Feb. 14, at Brant's.

MAY HEED GOMPERS.

A Huge Strike Probable In New England.

147,000 LIKELY TO CEASE WORK.

The Labor Leader Urged a General Strike of All Cotton Operatives to Aid Those Now Out—A Recommendation Followed the Suggestion.

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—At a meeting in this city of 55 representatives of textile unions in New England it was unanimously voted to recommend that all unions call out the operatives in every cotton mill in New England.

The meeting was practically the outcome of the recommendation which President Gompers made to the Federation of Labor week ago Sunday, in which he urged the different unions to unite on some settled policy regarding the mill situation in New England.

It now remains for the various national unions to take action on the recommendation, but what this action will be is a matter of conjecture. If all should acquiesce and vote to strike, 147,000 operatives would undoubtedly cease work and the manufacture of cotton goods throughout New England would be at a standstill. If, on the other hand, only a few unions should vote to strike, the refusal of the others would still keep a large portion of the mills in operation.

Inasmuch, however, as the meeting was the outcome of President Gompers' suggestions, and as he admonished the members of the Federation of Labor to join hands and assist the New Bedford strikers, it seems probable that nearly every union will carry out the recommendations, and that one of the greatest strikes ever seen in this country is impending.

Many of the French Canadian operatives in places where mills are closed have gone to Canada, and should some of the mills decide to start it is thought it would be difficult to run the departments without engaging new hands.

A new feature in the situation is the appearance of Canadian government colonization agents, who have been sent with a view of having the French Canadians out of work settle on unoccupied lands in the Lake St. John district of Quebec. These agents will begin a tour of the mill towns in Southern New England immediately. The Canadian and Quebec governments have undertaken to aid all settlers.

The existing troubles are causing the idleness of about 17,000 persons in New England.

Meetings Held by Gompers.

OIL CITY, Feb. 14.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, had two meetings in this city. The first was on Saturday, to which members of the various trades unions of the city were alone admitted, and the second was a public meeting, held in the opera house Sunday afternoon. Both meetings were an agitation of the movement to secure an eight-hour day throughout the United States.

LASHED AND PILLORIED.

Five Negroes and Four White Men Whipped In Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 14.—Five negroes and four white men have been lashed and pilloried in the jail yard at New Castle in a cold drizzling rain.

Isaac Hackett, a white man, for forgery, stood one hour in the pillory. John Wright, also white, for larceny, received 20 lashes. George White, colored, convicted of assault with intent to kill, took one hour in the pillory. Robert Murphy, a white man, for larceny, received 15 lashes. Charles Jones, colored, for larceny, also received 15 lashes. Charles Hodge, colored, for larceny, received a like number of lashes.

Ernest Williams, colored, for larceny, received 15 lashes. Thomas Rowen a white man, received ten lashes for larceny. William Spelley, colored, for larceny took ten lashes.

Vigilance Committee Formed.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 14.—The steamer Utopia, which has arrived from Skagway and Dyea, reports that a vigilance committee is being formed at Skagway with the intention of driving out of town toughs and bunks. "Holdups" and petty larceny are being daily reported and it is more than probable that lynchings will occur unless the authorities act promptly.

Fire In Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 14.—The large Hoyt building, on the northwest corner of St. Clair and Bank streets, owned by the Hoyt estate and occupied principally by manufacturers of clothing, wholesale hatters and furriers, caught fire Saturday and was practically destroyed with its contents. The loss is estimated at $375,000, pretty well covered by insurance.

Steamer Lost at Sea.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The American line steamer St. Louis, Captain Randle, from Southampton, reports the loss at sea of the Holland-American line steamer Veendam, Captain Stenger, from Rotterdam for New York. The passengers and crew of the Veendam were saved by the St. Louis.

No Action Against Pridgeon.

CANONSBURG, Pa., Feb. 14.—No legal proceedings have yet been instituted against Rev. C. H. Pridgeon, Ella McMillan and Mrs. Holliday as was recommended by the coroner's jury in the Mrs. Whiteside case, and it is generally believed the matter will go no further.

To Suit All Eyes.

That's the way we have glasses. There are no two eyes alike. Even your eyes are not alike. That's why you should get your glasses here, because we are so particular. Glasses fitted here, look good, feel good and make you see good. They are good because we sell only good glasses. "Cash or credit."

WADE, The Jeweler.

The First National Bank

Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.

Vice President—J. M. KELLY.

Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.

Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, W. L. THOMPSON.

J. M. KELLY, O. C. VODREY.

B. C. SIMMS, JNO. C. THOMPSON.

Capital, - - - $100,000

Surplus, - - - 50,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

CITIZENS' NATIONAL BANK, of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Office Fourth Street,

Near Smith & Phillips Music House.

Capital Stock, $100,000

Discount Days, Monday, Wednesday & Friday.

BUSINESS AND PERSONAL ACCOUNTS Respectfully Solicited.

CRESTON CLARKE is the nephew of that famous actor, Edwin

Booth, and the mantle of the uncle has fallen upon the shoulders of his talented nephew. East Liverpool will have a rare treat. Secure your seats at once. Now on sale at

Board of Directors:—Robert Hall, Joseph G. Lee, Wm. Erlanger, Dr. W. N. Bailey, Robert Burford, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, John W. Vodrey, A. J. Witzeman, John M. Steel.

ROBERT HALL, President.

JOSEPH G. LEE, Vice President.

HEBER H. BLYTH, Cashier.

CLIMAX STOVE POLISH

(World's Best)

Usual price 10c; for this week only..... 6c

Diamond Starch; usual price 10c; this week only..... 5c

Everything in the ## Grocery Line

at Reasonable Prices.

FRANK FOUTTS.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum, Surgeon Dentist.

Specialties: Syndicate Bldg.,

Crown and Bridge Work.

Sixth St. and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

Board of Directors:—Robert Hall, Joseph G. Lee, Wm. Erlanger, Dr. W. N. Bailey, Robert Burford, Dr. W. A. Hobbs, John W. Vodrey, A. J. Witzeman, John M. Steel.

</div

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Officer Grum will file his bond this week.

Timothy Twaddle, the popular ball player, is ill at his home in the West End.

W. E. Bolton, of Carrollton, spent yesterday and today with his family in this city.

John Parry, the Homestead boxer, spent Sunday in the city the guest of friends.

Susana A. Stewart has sold to Clark Moore two acres in Liverpool township for $200.

Mrs. S. J. Cripps is confined to her home in Jackson street with an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Lizzie Richards is ill at her home in East End, suffering with a bad attack of pneumonia.

The motorman of the street railway held an interesting meeting last Saturday evening.

A number of horsemen of the city are today attending a sale of Kentucky horses in Pittsburg.

The clay department at Cartwright's resumed work in full this morning. It has been shut down for some time.

The loading of the baggage of a show on the early eastern train at the station this morning, delayed it 10 minutes.

A larger gas engine was received at the freight depot this morning for the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company.

Ex-Commissioner Jacob Vanfossen died at his home near Lisbon at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. He was aged 69 years.

This morning several kiln hands from the Kokomo pottery arrived in the city. They started to work in a river pottery.

Although Saturday was little pay, a large amount of money was paid out in the city, and merchants did good business.

Mrs. Marsh Bannon, of East Palestine, spent Sunday in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Anderson, Lincoln avenue.

A well known resident is considering a plan for the erection of 12 houses in the East End. They will each contain five rooms.

Manager John B. Hoefgen, of the street car company, left Saturday for Boston. He will spend several days there on business.

Foreman Hickey and his force of men today finished the work of cleaning the yards about the freight depot. The work has been going on for several days.

A case of attempted shop lifting attracted some attention in a business house on Saturday night, but the name of the party implicated was not given out.

F. L. Patrick, representing Ward's, spent several hours in the city Saturday afternoon the guest of Agent Adam Hill. He left in the evening for Pittsburg.

Last evening two young ladies fell through the window of an uptown business house. The girls were not injured, but the glass was broken in small pieces.

Farmers coming to town this morning say that the roads are almost impassable. The mud is very deep, and on the principal roads traveling is attended by great inconvenience.

S. M. Hull, for sometime operator at the Summitville station, left for Columbus, Saturday where he will have an operation performed on his right arm. He is well known here.

George Eardley returned home Saturday morning after spending some time with his wife in Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Mrs. Eardley will not return to the city for several days, she being the guest of an uncle in Bellevue.

Miss Nettie Welch, who has been the guest of her grandmother in East Market street, returned today to her home in Altoona. She was accompanied as far as Pittsburg by her aunt, Mrs. William Rough.

E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, says the passenger earnings of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg in January exceeded those of January 1897, more than $50,000, and he is confident that $20,000 of this sum was due to the use of the interchangeable mileage.

1
2
off

GREAT

HALF OFF SALE!

We now offer Free Unlimited Choice
of any and every Man's Suit or Overcoat in our entire stock at

One = Half Off
regular selling price.

CAUSE — EFFECT
On Account of Enlarging
Store Room.

An Immense Loss
To Us.

An Immense Gain
To You.

There is a choice, of course, and human nature would not be true to itself if the best did not go first.

COME EARLY.

You Now Buy

Any $15 Suit or Overcoat for $7.50
Any 13 Suit or Overcoat for 6.50
Any 12 Suit or Overcoat for 6.00
Any 11 Suit or Overcoat for 5.50
Any 10 Suit or Overcoat for 5.00
Any 8 Suit or Overcoat for 4.00

SURPRISE CLOTHING STORE,

SIXTH AND E. MARKET STS.,

East Liverpool,

Ohio

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bona fide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Officer Grim will file his bond this week.

Timothy Twaddle, the popular ball player, is ill at his home in the West End.

W. E. Bolton, of Carrollton, spent yesterday and today with his family in this city.

John Parry, the Homestead boxer, spent Sunday in the city the guest of friends.

Susana A. Stewart has sold to Clark Moore two acres in Liverpool township for $200.

Mrs. S. J. Cripps is confined to her home in Jackson street with an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Lizzie Richards is ill at her home in East End, suffering with a bad attack of pneumonia.

The motorman of the street railway held an interesting meeting last Saturday evening.

A number of horsemen of the city are today attending a sale of Kentucky horses in Pittsburgh.

The clay department at Cartwright's resumed work in full this morning. It has been shut down for some time.

The loading of the baggage of a show on the early eastern train at the station this morning, delayed it 10 minutes.

A larger gas engine was received at the freight depot this morning for the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company.

Ex-Commissioner Jacob Vanfossen died at his home near Lisbon at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. He was aged 69 years.

This morning several kiln hands from the Kokomo pottery arrived in the city. They started to work in a river pottery.

Although Saturday was little pay, a large amount of money was paid out in the city, and merchants did good business.

Mrs. Marsh Bannon, of East Palestine, spent Sunday in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Anderson, Lincoln avenue.

A well known resident is considering a plan for the erection of 12 houses in the East End. They will each contain five rooms.

Manager John B. Hoefgen, of the street car company, left Saturday for Boston. He will spend several days there on business.

Foreman Hickey and his force of men today finished the work of cleaning the yards about the freight depot. The work has been going on for several days.

A case of attempted shop lifting attracted some attention in a business house on Saturday night, but the name of the party implicated was not given out.

F. L. Patrick, representing Ward's, spent several hours in the city Saturday afternoon the guest of Agent Adam Hill. He left in the evening for Pittsburgh.

Last evening two young ladies fell through the window of an uptown business house. The girls were not injured, but the glass was broken in small pieces.

Farmers coming to town this morning say that the roads are almost impassable. The mud is very deep, and on the principal roads traveling is attended by great inconvenience.

S. M. Hull, for sometime operator at the Summitville station, left for Columbus, Saturday where he will have an operation performed on his right arm. He is well known here.

George Eardley returned home Saturday morning after spending some time with his wife in Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Mrs. Eardley will not return to the city for several days, she being the guest of an uncle in Bellevue.

Miss Nettie Welch, who has been the guest of her grandmother in East Market street, returned today to her home in Altoona. She was accompanied as far as Pittsburgh by her aunt, Mrs. William Rough.

E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, says the passenger earnings of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh in January exceeded those of January 1897, more than $50,000, and he is confident that $20,000 of this sum was due to the use of the interchangeable mileage.

1
2
off

GREAT

HALF OFF SALE!

We now offer Free Unlimited Choice
of any and every Man's Suit or Overcoat in our entire stock at
One = Half Off
regular selling price.

CAUSE — EFFECT
On Account of Enlarging
Store Room.

An Immense Loss
To Us.

An Immense Gain
To You.

There is a choice, of course, and human nature would not be true to itself if the best did not go first.

COME EARLY.

You Now Buy

Any $15 Suit or Overcoat for $7.50
Any 13 Suit or Overcoat for 6.50
Any 12 Suit or Overcoat for 6.00
Any 11 Suit or Overcoat for 5.50
Any 10 Suit or Overcoat for 5.00
Any 8 Suit or Overcoat for 4.00

SURPRISE CLOTHING STORE,

SIXTH AND E. MARKET STS.,

East Liverpool,

Ohio